Ratification vote today

A ratification vote was planned today by Granite City teachers during a meeting being held at the Labor Temple. The session was still in progress at presstime.

There were indications that members of Local 743, American Federation of Teachers, were reacting favorably to the terms of a tentative two-year agreement. Some asked for detailed explanations of proposed changes from previous documents.

It was announced Aug. 5 that negotiating teams for Local 743 and for the Granite City community school district were in accord, and that the federation team would recommend affirmative action at today's meeting.

MOTORCYCLIST HURT

Elston Schnitzler, 16, Pleasant, Mo., suffered a compound fracture to his left leg when his motorcycle and a car collided at 5:15 p.m. Tuesday. He also suffered an injury to his left arm. He was taken by ambulance to St. Elizabeth Hospital and was transferred to Christian North-west Hospital in St. Louis.

Weather outlook for this region

Sunny and hot today and Friday with highs in the upper 80s. Low tonight 70 to 73. Light southerly winds. Continued hot and humid Friday through Monday with little chance of precipitation. Weekend highs in the upper 80s to mid-90s; lows from mid-60s to low 70s.

The Way It Was — In 1775

Aug. 21 — American officers report confidence that the lines around Boston are strong enough to repel any British attack, unless it is a complete surprise.

Aug. 22 — Washington notifies his troops that he discourages bathing at or near the bridge in Cambridge after citizens' complaints about lack of decency.

Aug. 23 — Thomas Jefferson says in a letter he wants a restoration "of our just rights" so he could enjoy "days in domestic ease and tranquility."

Aug. 24 — New Yorkers are evacuated from the city after a fray on the waterfront involving a barge and a warship which damaged several structures.

Fringe, pay hikes by city

By HARRY BARNES
Press-Record Staff Writer

A series of ordinances revising the salary schedules of city employees was enacted by the Granite City Council Monday night in action that will increase this year's payroll by approximately $275,000.

The higher salaries, based on a 12 per cent salary raise given all employees and individual raises granted department heads will bring the total payroll for the current 1975-76 fiscal year to $2,176,000.

The council action Monday night not only established a new salary schedule for all employees, based primarily on a 12 per cent across-the-board wage boost, but also revised a number of fringe benefits.

New salary rates for the Fire Department approved Monday night raises total salaries in that department to $53,082 per month, or a total of $636,104 for the fiscal year. All salary rates approved by the council are retroactive to May 1, beginning of the 1975-76 fiscal year.

This year's payroll for the Fire Department compares with a cost of $41,789 per month and a total of $501,066 for the 1974-75 fiscal that ended April 30.

Total payroll for the Police Department was established at $61,483 per month and a total of $737,796 for the year, compared with $46,623 per month and $559,476 annually last year.

Despite the 12 per cent increase, some of the salary raises for firemen and policemen ranged as high as 22 to 24 per cent, but this resulted from adoption of an ordinance Monday night incorporating holiday pay with base pay in those departments, and the inclusion of longevity pay in the regular payroll schedule.

On the basis of these salary schedules, the total annual payroll for the Police Department is an increase of $178,230 over that of last year, while the Fire Department's payroll is a

Rape threat by armed man

A 17-year-old Venice youth was held by Madison police today as a suspect in the armed robbery of the American Sales Dollar Store, 314 State St., Madison, in which the robber threatened to rape a woman who was in the store at the time of the holdup Wednesday afternoon.

The robber, armed with a small, blue-steel shotgun, held two women store clerks at gunpoint while he rifled the cash register of an undetermined amount of money.

He placed the money in a paper bag, and then told one of the women he was going to assault her.

At that point, the robber apparently became frightened when the telephone rang and the other woman, at the same time, called out, "Someone is coming into the store."

The two told police that the robber had been in the store earlier, while four customers were in the store, but had left at 2:30 p.m. Wednesday, displayed the shotgun and announced, "This is a holdup."

He instructed the two women to tie one another with neckties from a display.

After they complied with his demands, he took one to another part of the store, telling her that he was going to attack her.

It was at this point that the phone rang and the other woman called out, frightening the robber away, police reports said.

Police said they were told the youth was "slow and deliberate" in the robbery and was in the store from 15 to 20 minutes.

Authorities arrested a suspect early today and he is being held pending investigation of the case. The suspect has a long police record, police said.

The robber was described as 16 to 20 years of age, five feet, nine inches to six feet tall, with broad shoulders and a medium hair style with red tints on the ends. He was clean shaven and wore a white tee shirt, khaki trousers and brown leather boots with a silver design on the toes.

Venice board votes not to operate own buses

The Venice Board of Education abandoned Monday night a plan to establish its own school bus system and decided to finalize a contract with the R. W. Harmon & Sons Co. of Kansas City, Mo., to furnish transportation for students during the new school year starting next week.

By a 4 to 2 vote, the School Board decided to activate a contract with the Harmon firm under a bid that would cost the school district $28,953 during the 1975-76 fiscal year.

The Harmon bid was accepted by the board in a meeting June 30 but a contract was held in abeyance to give board members time to investigate a proposal that the district buy three used buses from the Lincoln Vocational Center and use them to provide transportation for Venice students.

Two board members, John Boushard and Charles Burger, favored that proposal in Monday night's meeting, contending that after the first year the district could operate its own transportation system at a cost of approximately $10,000.

Other board members maintained there was no guarantee that the used buses would be available in time for the district to use them at the opening of schools Monday.

Voting in favor of a motion to sign a contract with the Harmon transportation firm were Jack Tolliver, Elmer Taylor, Richard Bailey and Jackie Leatherman. Boushard and Burger voted "no." Board member William Fechte was absent at the time of the voting.

The Harmon company bid will cost the district $162.66 per day, or a total of $28,953 for the school year, according to Robert Vickers, superintendent of schools.

The last contract for school transportation cost the district $28,032. That contract was held by Bi-State Transit Co., which submitted a bid earlier this year for board consideration but later withdrew it with an announcement that the company no longer wishes to provide school bus service in this area.

Vickers said the withdrawal of the Bi-State bid also was prompted by the fact that the transit system would not offer a firm price bid and would not guarantee that there would be no price increase throughout the full term.

Board members made plans to use buses from the Lincoln Technical Center for the morning and afternoon kindergarten classes, for sports activities when needed and any other extra curricular activities at the schools.

In other board action, contracts were awarded to the Kech Painting Co. of Granite City to paint six rooms at the high school, the stage and the auditorium on a low bid of $1,582; and to the Biebel Roofing Co., Cahokia, to remove and replace the roof on the 1938 addition of the grade school on a low bid of $5,739.

Their bid also included repairs to the roof of the board office. Board members also accepted a bid from the Range Co. of New Athens to provide eggs

Access road estimate is $850,000

An access road behind shopping centers south of West Pontoon Road could be built to Fehling Road for $850,000, estimates prepared for the city government and citizens indicated last night.

Potential access routes would involve some Norfolk and Western Railway right-of-way, it is believed. A roadway extending from the shopping center to the area of 25th Street would cost an estimated $1,280,000, it was noted.

The road and other goals were reviewed at the 1975 accountability meeting of the Tri-Cities Area Chamber of Commerce, attracting a capacity dinner gathering last night at the Trinity Hall in Madison.

Progress is being made toward extension of Maryville Road and completion of a Downtown truck route utilizing 18th Street, Richard Ervay, chairman of the Highway, Traffic and Transportation Committee, said.

Avery Schermer, chairman of the Sewers and Drainage Committee, told Chamber members that federal and state legislators this week after President John Randleman's announcement of staff structural changes intended to achieve greater efficiency and economy.

Some said the action may have been speeded due to the illness of Dr. Randleman, who is receiving chemical treatment for inoperable lung cancer.

President is to be dissolved are those of Vice-President for Business Affairs B. D. Hudgens, Vice President for Student Affairs Ramon Williamson and assistant business affairs vice-presidents Arnold Franke (fiscal) and Charles Moorhagen (planning).

The two vice-presidents have academic tenure; they may switch to teaching positions or apply for the new administrative post.

Williamson, a music professor, said, "I think that his health played a major role in his decision. I don't think he United Way division chairman met with the general campaign chairman, David Fox, this week to review progress for the October 1975 fund drive.

Fox reminded the group that this year's goal is $430,000. For the last two years, the campaign goal has been reached. This year's goal is $13,000 less than actual allocations made in the fall of 1974 for agencies' 1975 operations.

Fox advised the chairman that, with current economic conditions, the need for emergency aid is "greater than ever."

He added, "The high cost of living also makes it impossible for some employed people to stretch their low incomes from payday to payday. These are the ones who, during an emergency, must ask for aid."

The division chairman reported progress that has been made in organizing the divisions into segments headed by group leaders.

Chairmen are optimistic that the drive activity is off to a good start, and that all divisions are ready to conduct a vigorous campaign, Fox said.

Plans are being made for a kickoff breakfast for workers to start initial solicitation Thursday, Sept. 25. The breakfast will be held in the Officers Club at the Granite City Army Installation.

Repair efforts have been plagued by a high water table which is above the level of the sewer pipe. The break is located north of Coolidge, near Fehling Road.

Tully A. Heubner, director of business affairs for the school district, told the Board of Education at its regular meeting Tuesday night that the sewer break has presented severe problems, since sections of the broken sewer are as deep as 16 feet from the surface.

Dewatering was necessary to lower the water table around the break, allowing excavation to the break to begin. A backhoe was rented from Kamoshaka Excavating and Grading Co., but was unable to reach the deep sewer, stopping at 12 feet.

A unit with a longer backhoe had to be rented from Wilbur Waggoner Equipment Rental Co. which got workers to the broken sewer, Heubner explained.

"The break must have been there some time and has made a lagoon under there," he commented. "There are going to be some pretty sizable bills coming in here when this job is finished," he told board members.

Heubner said 10 feet of the broken sewer were replaced Tuesday and another section was completed Wednesday. He hoped the repairs can be completed and the hole filled this week.

The deep hole presents a danger to children, he said, noting that the repairmen are

By GARY SCHNEIDER

Granite City and nearby cities are not the only taxing bodies plagued by sanitary sewer breaks as the Granite City School District started work Monday to replace a 35-foot-long section of its major sewer which serves the Granite City High School memorial gymnasium and annex and Coolidge Junior High School.

Repair efforts have been plagued by a high water table which is above the level of the sewer pipe. The break is located north of Coolidge, near Fehling Road.

The Tansy plant is nature's own insect repellent. When rubbed directly on the skin it is most effective. Imported from its native North Africa, the Ancient Greeks brewed a tea of Tansy to expel worms. Later, Colonial settlers added it to their herb gardens, and as the settlers traveled, so did the plant. It is now common on our continent.

GC plans census of annexed areas

A census of areas annexed by Granite City since 1970 was authorized by the City Council Monday night.

The council enacted an ordinance providing for the census with manpower available under the Comprehensive Employment Training Act (CETA) at no cost to the city.

Alderman Ronald Coleman, chairman of the council's Finance Committee, said the census is necessary to determine the number of new residents brought into the city during the past five years because additional revenue would be available to the city on the basis of the population increase.

Most of the territory annexed since the last official U. S. census was taken in 1970 is located in what formerly was part of Nameoki Township.

Coleman told the council that "Even if we showed a population increase of 2,000 persons in the annexed areas, it could mean as much as $80,000 per year more in city income."

State payments of income tax are sales tax based on population, Coleman noted.

In other action by the council, a request was approved to provide $155 in expenses for Victor Koenig, director of Civil Defense, to attend a three-day meeting of the Illinois Civil Defense Council Sept. 12, 13 and 14 at Moline, Ill.

The alderman also approved expenses of $450 for Koenig to attend the annual meeting of the U. S. Civil Defense Council at Albuquerque, N. M., Oct. 4-10, and a similar amount for Mayor Paul Schuler to attend the same meeting.

The council was informed that the state has allocated sales tax of $86,907 for the month of May, and that fines and fees collected by the Circuit Court, amounting to $2,763, have been paid the city for the month of July.

An application by Illinois Bell Telephone Co. to make an extension to lay telephone cables from 1901 Edwardsville Road to 19th Street was approved.

Mayor Paul Schuler informed council members that he has instructed the Street Department to increase its program of mosquito spraying this year because of the threat of encephalitis.

Death of steel plant worker held accidental

A verdict of accidental death was returned at an inquest conducted by Madison County Deputy Coroner William Sternberg in the death of Chester Watson, 63, a railroad division employee of the Granite City Steel blast furnace department, who died June 22.

Mr. Watson, who resided at 4812 Warnock Ave., was found along the railroad tracks in the plant at 6:15 p.m.

According to the inquest report, Mr. Watson apparently was caught between pulleys which are used to assist in moving railroad cars.

Southern Ill. retail meeting slated Sept. 3

The 1975 fall meeting of the Southern Illinois Retail Council of the Illinois Retail Merchants Association has been scheduled for Wednesday, Sept. 3, from 2 to 8:15 p.m. at the Mount Vernon Ramada Inn, 1-57 at U. S. Route 460.

The cost of $6.90 will include a dinner.

There will be a discussion of key retail legislation with several Southern Illinois legislators, a session covering employee relations and contract negotiations with IRMA Counsel John Noble, and a discussion of shrinkage control, the economy, taxes, regulations and the general retail outlook.

Plans for future meetings will be outlined.

Registration is to begin at 1:30 p.m.

Driver injured in bridge mishap

Johnnie Brink, 59, of 743 Broadway, Venice, was treated at St. Elizabeth Hospital for injuries suffered at 8 p.m. Tuesday when his car crashed into a railing on the west end of McKinley Bridge.

He was treated for abrasions to the left arm, left elbow, chest and nose, was x-rayed and released.

Venice police said Brink's car was headed east on the bridge when the accident occurred. Brink told officers he became ill, causing him to lose control.

Money bags recovered

Three bags of money deposited by an employee of the Pizza Hut in the night depository of a local bank early yesterday disappeared for a time, but have been found.

Pizza Hut employees were notified by a service station employee that the station owner had been attempting to make a night deposit and found the three bags, containing $830, inside the depository. He said the boss took the bags back to the service station and told his employee to notify Pizza Hut officials.

Reports of a similar occurrence at another Granite City area bank involving the night deposit of a large restaurant are under investigation. Money is believed still missing from the second incident.

Driver injured

Charles Wise, 32, of 2219 E. 3rd St., was admitted to St. Elizabeth Hospital after his auto struck a tree at Leonard and Marshall avenues at 6:30 p.m. Wednesday.

Wise said he was turning left from northbound on Marshall Avenue onto Leonard when he seemed to miss a dog and the car went out of control and struck the tree.

He suffered cuts to his right temple, right cheek, nose and a large cut to the right side of his forehead. He was in satisfactory condition today.

Airport's economic stimulus described

Construction of a major new airport at Columbia-Waterloo would be an immense economic stimulus and would be fully in accord with this region's ecological-environmental goals.

Two drivers hurt in mishap

Two drivers were injured in a three-car chain reaction collision on Edwardsville Road at the railroad tracks at 4:20 p.m. Wednesday. The auto believed to have caused the accident left the scene.

Mrs. Beverly Brown, 36, of 2709 Maryville Road, said her northbound auto was stopped at the tracks and the car of Miss Mary Lineberger, 21, Alton, stopped behind. A third car struck the rear of Miss Lineberger's auto, pushing it into Mrs. Brown's car.

The third auto then drove from the scene without the driver giving his name. A license plate number of the hit and run car was checked and it is believed the license plate had been thrown away by its owner and was found and used by someone else.

Mrs. Brown suffered neck pain and was released from St. Elizabeth Hospital after x-rays were taken. Miss Lineberger was taken by ambulance to the hospital where she was treated for swelling to her right ankle and was released following treatment.

Granite City Rotarians were held Tuesday.

H. J. Habersacker, retired president of Belleville Area College, spoke to the club as executive director of the Impact task force formed by Illinoisans and Missourians to expedite establishment of the proposed airport.

Lambert Airport, surrounded by homes and industry, cannot expand significantly, creating a need for the new airport, the speaker said.

He urged a prompt start, saying the issue has been "studied to death" and rendered needlessly controversial. He presented photographic slides during the talk. Program chairman was Walter Greathouse, and President Bill H. Terrell presided.

Rotarians decided to hold an outing at the B. E. Moody farm Sept. 9 and to take wives and guests to Madison County Night at Busch Stadium Sept. 16.

Romel Wilbon found dead

Romel Wilbon, 53, of East St. Louis, a member of the East Side Levee and Sanitary District board of trustees, was found dead Wednesday in his hotel room in New Orleans, La., where he had gone on a vacation trip last week.

Mr. Wilbon was found by hotel employees after a maid reported she was unable to get into his room. Tuesday or Wednesday morning, according to reports received yesterday.

Mr. Wilbon had been a member of the levee board three years. He was an East St. Louis alderman of Ward Two and a Democratic precinct committeeman.

The body was to be returned today to an East St. Louis funeral home.

Mr. Wilbon's home at 815 N. 35th St., East St. Louis, was gutted by fire Saturday, the day after he left for New Orleans. Authorities said arson is suspected.

Man killed, 1 wounded in shooting

One man was killed and another is in fair condition at St. Elizabeth Hospital here following a shooting incident in Brooklyn about 2:30 a.m. today.

Dead is Murphy Ware, 22, East St. Louis, who suffered a gunshot wound to his right upper chest, and was found in a parked car at the Thomas Terry Apartments in Brooklyn. He was pronounced dead upon arrival at the hospital here. An autopsy was to be conducted today at a Granite City funeral home.

Lee Thomas Trice, 43, of Brooklyn is in fair condition today at the hospital with gunshot wounds to his right eyebrow, right shoulder and right hip.

Brooklyn police are investigating details of the shooting. Trice and a nephew who said he was with Trice at the time of the shootings, came to the hospital at 2:40 a.m. today and the nephew, Ralph Wellmaker, Brooklyn, asked a Madison County sheriff's deputy to help him get Trice from the car and into the emergency room.

The deputy said Trice was clad in pajamas which were covered with blood.

The nephew told the deputy he had been at his uncle's home at 411 Jefferson St., Brooklyn, when four men came in, at least two displaying weapons. Wellmaker said he thought the men were trying to rob his uncle when gunfire broke out and Trice was struck.

The men then fled toward a gold Pontiac during which shots were fired at the robbers, he said. One robber fell and was picked up by his friends and placed in the car, which left toward Venice, according to Wellmaker.

Trice told deputies he felt two or more of the robbers may have been struck by the returned gunfire.

While authorities were at the hospital attempting to clarify details of the reports, an East St. Louis funeral home ambulance came to the emergency room with Ware, who was pronounced dead upon arrival at 3:35 a.m. today.

Police said he had been found in a gold Pontiac parked in Brooklyn.

Comptroller fears state on way to fiscal disaster

Combined cuts in Governor Daniel Walker's budget by the General Assembly and the governor himself totaled only 3.8 per cent against the governor's announced goal of six per cent, Illinois Comptroller George W. Lindberg said this week in his monthly financial review.

The comptroller again urged the governor to announce his revised spending plans for the 1975-76 fiscal year, which began July 1, "so that the General Assembly will have both a revenue and a spending outlook to use in making budget decisions in the fall."

Lindberg's report showed that cuts to the governor's March general funds appropriation request of $5.4 billion totaled $294 million, a 3.8 per cent cut. The governor said June 11 that a 6 per cent cut was required.

Stressing the "critical nature" of the state's present financial situation, Lindberg said: "The governor has not yet publicly revealed a spending plan for fiscal 1976.

"In a nutshell, only reduced spending—not the advertising of appropriations cuts—will avert a fiscal disaster in the next 12-month period.

"For example, public aid grant appropriations were cut by $45 million, but this so-called cut does not imply a cut in spending.

"Cutting appropriations on paper is likely to lead to an increased deficiency appropriation to meet actual spending requirements later in the year."

Lindberg noted that a public aid deficiency of $196 million was enacted to fund welfare grant programs through the 1974-75 year that ended June 30. Appropriation levels for some public aid spending areas are now set lower than the actual spending record for the past year, the comptroller said, while a growing number of recipients argues for higher, rather than lower, expenditures this year.

The comptroller urged the Assembly, in its fall session, to avoid restoration of funds already cut from budget requests.

"Putting back large amounts of money will only intensify our present deficit spending problem by boosting the deficit rate," Lindberg cautioned.

He said that the available balance at the end of July was $243 million less than a year ago—$295 million compared to $538 million.

Rites held for George McKinnon

Funeral services were conducted at 11 a.m. Wednesday at an Edwardsville funeral home for George "Bud" McKinnon Sr., 46, of Edwardsville, formerly of Granite City, who died on Aug. 16 while vacationing in Daytona Beach, Fla.

Survivors include his wife, Mrs. Betty McKinnon; one daughter, Mrs. Cyle Myers of Granite City, a son, George McKinnon Jr., Maryville; a sister, Mrs. Mary Jane Stevens, Granite City; his mother Mrs. Mary E. Williams, Joliet, Ill.; stepchildren, Patrick, Thomas, Steven and Susan Morrison, all of Edwardsville; one grandchild and four step-grandchildren.

Burial was in Calvary Cemetery, Edwardsville Township.

Rites held Monday for Mrs. Ruemmler

Funeral services were held Monday in Gallatin, Tenn., for Mrs. Alice Ruemmler, 44, of Honolulu, Hawaii, who died at 1:30 p.m. on Aug. 8 at the Naval Hospital, Hawaii.

Her husband Chief Petty Officer Donald Ruemmler, U.S. Navy is formerly of Granite City.

Other survivors include a son William B. Taylor and a daughter, Mrs. Charles T. (Yvonne) Marsalas, both of Honolulu; a sister-in-law, Mrs. Nina Oliver of Granite City, and a step-grandfather, Tom Biggs of Granite City.

Burial was in Gallatin Cemetery, Tenn.

APARTMENT THEFT

A television and stand, together worth $115, were stolen from the apartment of Georgia Wood, 2077 rear Dewey Ave., after broken pieces of a cracked window were removed from the rear door and the door was opened. It was reported at 1:45 a.m. today.

Township said to lack authority to solve street issue

Nameoki Township Supervisor Louis E. Whitsell wrote Madison Mayor Mike Sasyk this week that "the present controversy over maintenance of Parish Street and the school crossing lights on McCambridge is another example of the urgent need to educate the people on the functions of township government—or ask our legislators to change the laws to a more up-to-date, democratic system."

"I am frustrated when news media say that the township has failed to perform, when it is in fact a duty of only the highway commissioner in this case."

"The highway commissioner is a separate and distinct quasi-corporation from the township," Whitsell noted.

"The township has no jurisdiction over him, nor can we issue orders, make decisions or demand cooperation from the highway commissioner."

"The commissioner is the executive officer, the administrative officer and the judicial officer of his own government. It is a dictatorship."

"The Town Board can only provide him a budget and check that he stays within his budget and we would be foolish not to."

"In many townships throughout Illinois, the highway commissioner devotes his time to maintenance of the roads, traffic control, drainage, etc., and he voluntarily leaves the administrative functions to the township supervisor and the board. This is not the case in Nameoki Township."

"The Nameoki Town Board members are not advised of any plans or decisions of the highway commissioner. We don't know if he plans to maintain Parish Street or any other street."

"We can only wait for his decision and listen to the complaints directed to the township and the township supervisor."

"Many of you who read this statement will be astonished by the existing illusion that the supervisor is to blame, and if you are astonished help me by writing letters to your state senator and representatives to change this undemocratic form of government."

"If the highway commissioner decides to maintain Parish Street and the traffic light, I pledge my one vote for any budget appropriation that he might request if needed," the supervisor concluded.

FATHER AND SON race car drivers head the point standings in their divisions at the Tri-City Speedway, 5100 Nameoki Road (Route 203), enters a four-week season homestretch Saturday, starting at 7:30 p.m.

The late model stock car division championship has been won by Russ Wallace, father of Mike, with 4,300 points. This figure is 1,220 more than his closest competitor, Bill Myers of Rosewood Heights.

Wallace clinched the title during the weekend with a third-place finish in the feature race — won by Myers — after having captured eight main events.

Mike Wallace, 19, will seek his sixth straight feature race victory Saturday in hopes of adding to his 360-point lead in that division over Bailey, who is second with 2,060 points. Yates is in third place with 1,805 points.

With 200 points awarded to a feature race winner and an additional five points given a driver for competing on each race date, the sportsman class battle promises to go down to the wire, Sept. 13, as it did last season.

Bailey edged John Walmeier for the 1974 championship. Yates last year finished in third place.

Track promoter Ed Bloom is making it tougher for sportsman drivers to earn points Saturday in the feature race, having scheduled a double-O main event.

Normally, the late model cars compete on the half-mile oval and sportsman cars on a quarter-mile oval. But, this week, the sportsman class will compete on both tracks in pursuit of the main event checkered flag.

The event will start with cars completing one lap on the smaller track and then moving onto the half-mile oval upon receiving the green flag, signifying the start of the main phase of the race.

They will then alternate between the two tracks for 10 laps, with the checkered flag going to the leader coming off the fourth corner of the quarter-mile oval.

Double-O main event planned at speedway

Stock car racing at Tri-City Speedway, 5100 Nameoki Road (Route 203), enters a four-week season homestretch Saturday, starting at 7:30 p.m.

A three-way battle is being waged in the sportsman class for the 1975 track championship between Mike Wallace, Arnold, Mo., and Granite City's Rod Bailey and Jack Yates.

Flag football coaching posts still available

The Granite City Park District still has openings for individuals wishing to coach flag football teams this fall in the park district's program, which begins Sept. 13.

"Mike Jessee, recreation director, reports that the park district program is designed to offer boys 8-12 years of age basic gridiron skills.

He asks that persons who are interested contact him at the park office at 877-3059.

Sell adult season passes at North

Gilbert Walmsley, principal of Granite City High School North, has announced that the board of education has provided an adult season pass for all home football, basketball and wrestling events.

Normally, adult admittance to athletic events is $1.50 per adult.

All of the home games or meets will only cost $1 per event if a season pass is purchased.

During the 1975-76 season, GCHS North will have four home football games, nine home basketball games and six home wrestling meets.

Adults are being requested to report to the main office of North starting Tuesday, Aug. 26, if they desire to purchase the $4 football season pass.

North's first home game is vs. GCHS South on Sept. 5.

Steeler harriers appear to be near mid-season form

Enthusiasm and determination by Granite City High School North's seven returning cross-country runners during the off-season "have put the Steelers in the unique position of starting their 1975 fall season with a squad that runs as if it had half of the seasons schedule behind them," says Coach Pete Robinson.

"I'm optimistic about them," he comments, "even though we have only two seniors back."

Of the 21 harriers who reported for practice, seven lettered in the sport last year — sophomores Mike Baker and John Bracamontes, juniors Don Lucy, Dave Ebrecht and Dave Peters, and seniors Dave Puch and Robin Tegel.

Robinson believes he will have an indication of how strong his harriers are on Sept. 6, when they compete in a 22-school invitational on their own 2.8-mile course.

"In a meet of this caliber," he says, "if a running place anywhere in the top 25 finishing positions, he is a quality cross-country runner."

One Steeler runner, Mike Baker, proved himself last year as a freshman when he placed first numerous times in dual meets.

He topped 140 harriers to set a new cross-country record of eight minutes, 21 seconds on a hilly Hazelwood, Mo., 1.5-mile course during an invitational meet.

Baker also finished among the top ten in Illinois High School Association district competition at Alton, advancing to a sectional meet at Jacksonville, where he placed 13th by running the three-mile course in 15 minutes and 18 seconds.

His sectional finishing position failed to qualify him for the state finals at Peoria because only the top 10 runners received the right to advance.

"He has been extremely strong thus far in practice," remarks Robinson, "and he should have a fantastic season, barring any injuries."

More than half of North's 21 runners who are attempting to earn starting positions on the varsity team are freshmen and sophomores.

"Cross-country is so much different from other high school sports," comments Robinson. "We want young athletes to come out for the first time rather than having a junior or senior try the sport for the first time."

"I feel that if we don't get the boys in the underclassman levels, it is almost too late for them to attempt cross-country running."

The head mentor will get a look at his harriers in action Sept. 2 in a five-school pre-season meet at Alton, competing against the hosts, Edwardsville, GCHS South and East St. Louis. Alton captured the event last year with 188 points and Edwardsville placed second.

Alton again has a strong team, but Edwardsville lost a lot of good runners through graduation," the coach added.

Eyes of Texas and Illinois on motorcyclist McClure

Texas motorcycle rider Guy Kirkland, 18, had to settle for second place in a heat race won by Aldana, and second in a semifinal event won by Hocking. He then took fifth in the main event.

Other race event winners were: Steve Freeman, heat race and semifinal event; Hocking, Steve Ekland and Ken Hapke, heat races; Delwayne Horton, consolation event; and McClure, a semifinal event.

With next Tuesday ending the AMA's 1975 motorcycle racing season at Tri-City Speedway, McClure said he will stay in Tennessee during the winter months to work on a farm, and maybe compete in a few indoor racing events.

Next week's racing program will include a regular main event, plus an added 10-lap feature race for the top ten riders in point standings.

McClure, last year's second-place high point man here behind track champion Randy Cleek, topped three riders who are ranked nationally by the AMA in winning his heat race and John Gennai, Vernon Johnson and John Hatley.

He then led the 12-lap main event from start to finish.

Rick Hocking, ranked 13th nationally, and Dave Aldana, ranked 16th nationally, finished second and third behind him.

The win by McClure marked the second straight week that Millstadt's Danny Kirkland was denied an eighth main event win of the season.

THE BLUE MAX funny car, driven by Raymond Beadle, favored to win the Gateway Nationals of Drag Racing this weekend at St. Louis International Raceway south of Madison. The nitro-methane burning, blown and injected Mustang already has clinched the 1975 championship of the International Hot Rod Association. It will meet 15 other top funny cars here Saturday and Sunday.

Baseball offered as fall sport to GC 7th graders

Full baseball??

"Yes," says Joseph Fedora, Granite City director of school athletics, "but only for seventh graders in each of our three junior high schools."

Fedora, commenting on a proposal approved by the Board of Education Tuesday night, notes that the switch from a spring to a fall baseball program "will provide a greater opportunity for seventh grade athletes without any additional staffing or expenditure to the school district or infringement on any of our current junior high school offerings."

Issuance of necessary playing equipment will begin Tuesday, Aug. 26, at each junior high school, at which time physical examination certificates and parent permission forms are to be returned.

Both forms are now available at the office of each school during normal office hours.

Fedora explained, "Now a seventh grade athlete can compete in baseball and also elect to participate in any of our spring sports programs."

"Fall baseball players could also elect to compete, upon an invitation by the coach, in eighth grade baseball in the spring."

The new fall program will begin Sept. 12 with pre-season intra-squad competition, continue with a nine-game schedule and end Oct. 24 with a post-season intra-squad contest.

The seventh grade baseball coaches are James Davis at Grigsby, Ron Simpson at Prather and John Toncoff at Coolidge.

Gateway Nationals of drag racing to open here tomorrow

Three 1975 International Hot Rod Association champions, headed by Raymond Beadle in the "Blue Max" funny car, have entered the Winston-IHRA Gateway Nationals title series race at St. Louis International Raceway south of Madison tomorrow, Saturday and Sunday.

The other two are Dale Pude in the California Charger and Gene Snow in the Revell Snowman.

Beadle, the Winston challenge point leader in funny cars, has rolled to three IHRA victories this season and will be the favorite to score his fourth win. He already has amassed enough points to guarantee him the season point championship.

Beadle won the winter nationals title in Miami and then had a runnerup finish to Dale Pude in the world nationals at Amarillo, Tex. He came back to win the program points to guarantee him the season point championship.

Snow won the spring nationals at Bristol but Beadle roared right back to take the summer nationals crown at Great Lakes Dragway in Union Grove, Wis.

The intense rivalry came to a "direct meeting" last week as Snow's headers became entangled in the nose of the Blue Max about 100 feet off the starting line. But both cars were quickly repaired and are ready for this weekend.

Score of Fort Worth, Tex., scored the biggest victory of his career on the IHRA circuit less than two months ago when he captured the spring nationals at Bristol, beating out the Chitown Hustler. It was the first victory for the popular Snow at Bristol.

Pude, who drove Joe Munde's Eastern Raider to victory in the world nationals earlier this year, has switched rides and will be on hand to try and hang onto his second place position in the points race.

Pude will be driving the California Charger the rest of the 1975 season.

Many of the top names in drag racing are expected to join Beadle, Pude and Snow in the Gateway Nationals to battle for a position in the 16-car funny car field.

Four of the nation's top pro stock drivers — Wayne Gapp, Scott Shafiroff, "Dyno" Don Nicholson and Bob Glidden — have entered that class, which is expected to include more than 30 cars.

Gapp, a Lavonia, Mich., Pinto driver, is the biggest IHRA winner of the four thus far this season with a pair of national titles to his credit.

The IHRA recordholder in both elapsed time and miles per hour, he captured the winter nationals at Miami and the world nationals at Amarillo before his winning streak of five was halted by Richie Zul in the pro-am at Rockingham, N.C.

Nicholson, a Mustang driver from Atlanta, scored his first IHRA win of the season in his last outing, the summer nationals at Great Lakes Dragway.

The victory also gave Nicholson the lead in the Winston challenge points race with 2,100, a 400-point edge over Gapp and Shafiroff.

Shafiroff, of Flushing, N.Y.,

also has a victory to his credit this year, winning the spring nationals at Bristol. He was bidding for his second straight before falling to Nicholson in the summer nationals finals.

Glidden has yet to win an IHRA event this season but has made it to the finals on two occasions. He was runnerup to Gapp in the winter nationals and was second to Zul in the pro-am. The Beech Grove, Ind., Pinto driver is still in the thick of the points battle, holding down fifth place 700 points behind the leading Nicholson.

Four other capable drivers also entered in the Gateway event include McFar drivers Roy Hill of High Point, N.C., Don Carlton of Lenoir, N.C., and Reid Whisman of Atlanta, Ga., and Chevrolet-driving Lee Edwards of Calverton, Va.

Hill, driving the Richard Petty prepared Plymouth, held the Winston points lead until Nicholson took over with his summer nationals win. Hill dropped to fourth place with 2,400 points, 300 behind the leader.

This will be, IHRA's first venture into the St. Louis area and is expected to draw a large field for the annual race, one of the largest drag racing events presented annually in the Midwest.

The track will open at noon tomorrow, with time trials and qualifying set to begin at 1 p.m. Activity will continue until 40 p.m. A pro-stock match race between Nicholson and Hill will highlight Friday evening racing.

On Saturday, qualifying will begin at 10 a.m., with class eliminations starting at 2 p.m.

On Sunday, the gates will open at 8 a.m., with time trials at 10 and final eliminations starting at 2 p.m.

Plan tonight for 'Y' fall boys' soccer

Officials of the Tri-City Area YMCA's soccer program will meet at 7:30 this evening at the local "Y," 2001 Edison Ave., to discuss a possible Sept. 6-7 weekend of competition, inaugurating the 1975 boys' fall soccer program.

Harold Rudolph, executive director of the YMCA, said plans also will be made to utilize additional fields this fall near Steele Field which have been donated by their owner for use in the sport.

Rudolph further said that tonight's meeting call does not necessarily mean the season will start on Sept. 5-6. "It could begin the following weekend, Sept. 13-14, depending on whether we have enough teams in order to complete the schedule."

Tourney at Army base for 13 women's teams

The Granite City Army Installation will host a double-elimination combined Class A, Class AA and high school women's softball tournament this weekend, with hopes of making it an annual event.

Thirteen women's teams are entered in the three-day tournament, which begins at 6 p.m. tomorrow on the Army Installation's baseball diamonds.

Entrants are Apple Valley, Jets, Boushards Remodeling, Seebold Concrete, St. Louis Foxes, Crickets, Waterloo, O'Neil's (formerly Houser Auto Parts), Tony and Joe's, St. Mary's, Granite City Chrysler-Plymouth, Downtown Drivers and Madison Ladies' Democratic Club.

Kicking off the championship bracket competition Friday on Diamond One will be Apple Valley playing the Jets at 6 p.m. Boushards drew a first-round bye and will meet the Apple Valley winner at 11 a.m. Saturday.

At 8 p.m. tomorrow on Diamond One, Seebold Concrete plays the Foxes, with the victor meeting the Crickets at noon Saturday.

It will be Tony and Joe's vs. O'Neil's tomorrow at 6 p.m. on Diamond Two, the winner playing Waterloo at noon Saturday on the same field. First-round action continues tomorrow evening on Diamond One at nine o'clock with St. Mary's playing Granite City Chrysler, and at 7 p.m. on Diamond 2, Downtown Drug meeting the Democrats.

Sikes' big bat to aid Cougar offense

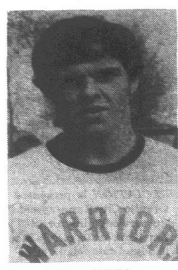

Brian Sikes, a GCHS South graduate and son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert (Mary) Sikes of Granite City, has received a baseball scholarship to attend Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville this fall.

He will attempt to earn his way next spring into the baseball Cougars' starting lineup.

Sikes, a catcher for the Warriors this past season, led the school at the plate with a .448 batting average and 13 hits in 29 trips to the plate. He also was credited with seven of South's runs.

This summer, he joined Cougar Coach Roy Lee's instructional collegiate league as a catcher, first baseman and designated hitter. He had a .300 batting average against such teams as McKendree College, St. Louis University and University of Missouri-St. Louis.

In limited action with the

BRIAN SIKES

Granite City Braves this summer, he garnered 21 hits in 44 times at bat for a .477 average.

Trojan cross-country plans await turnout

Madison High School cross-country mentor Larry Graham is again taking a wait-and-see position this year regarding the school's cross-country fall program.

"We won't know anything until after Labor Day," he says. "If the turnout is successful, then we'll start work on scheduling meets."

Last year, the Trojans faced a five-meet schedule, winning four of them. In 1973, Madison was .06 on the season, "two of the losses were by forfeit due to a lack of barriers."

"Sept. 2," says Graham "will be the deciding date."

GOING THROUGH THE MOTIONS of offensive and defensive plays occupies young football players along with physical exercises in the early portion of their training period. But actual contact in the form of blocking and tackling gradually receives emphasis to help prepare them for the start of competition with other schools. This view shows an early practice session of the GCHS North grid Steelers.

Girls' softball tournaments in Mitchell to open Friday

Two Quad-City area women's softball teams — Marcus Realty and Sammy's Tavern — will host two double-elimination softball tournaments to be held simultaneously this weekend, starting tomorrow at Mitchell, in an attempt to raise funds to equip a girls' soccer team this fall.

Dan Wilson, a tournament spokesman, said the $30 per team entry fee required will be donated to a soccer team for girls of high school age, to purchase uniforms and other equipment.

The team is to be coached by former GCHS South soccer standout Bobby Galvan and Jerry Duncan, who played with a Missouri State championship team three years ago.

One tournament this weekend will involve six teams consisting of girls aged seven, eight and nine, and the other will involve 14 teams comprised of high school age girls. Pairings for the tournament are to be chosen today at six o'clock at Mitchell Field.

Both tournaments will begin tomorrow, with games at 6 and 7 p.m., and resume Saturday at 10 a.m., with competition throughout the day.

On Sunday, games will begin at noon, with contests also on tap at 2, 3, 4 and 5 p.m. Tournament championship contests will be played at 6 p.m. Sunday.

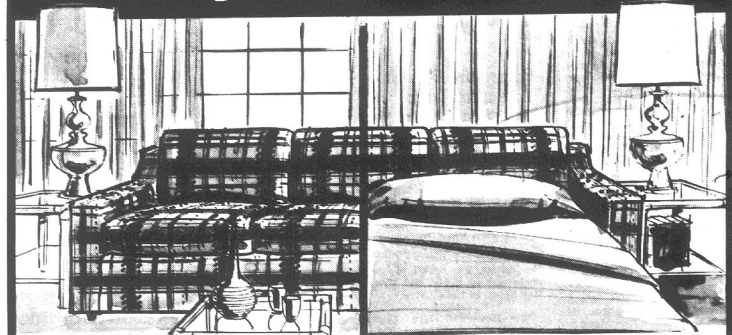

The high school age teams will utilize two large Mitchell diamonds, and the other tournament will be held on a smaller diamond at Mitchell Field.

Wilson said refreshments will be available throughout the weekend and articles from area merchants will be given away.

Star Recorders are honored

The Women of the Moose, Chapter 247, hosted a Star Recorder Chapter meeting last week at the Moose Lodge, arranged by chairman Mrs. Mildred Votougal.

Miss Ruth Stover, senior regent, opened the session and then turned the meeting over to Mrs. Marian Lipscomb. Those serving as officers for the evening were star recorders, Evelyn Reek of Collinsville, junior graduate regent; Mrs. Lipscomb, senior regent; Mrs. Votougal, Granite City, junior regent, and Mrs. Violet Simons, Collinsville, treasurer.

Star recorder is an award earned by serving the chapter as secretary and bookkeeper for one year and submitting four perfect quarterly audit reports for that year.

Speaker for the evening was Mrs. Ella McKittick, who received the award 25 years ago in Buffalo, N. Y. She has been a member of the local organization since 1946.

Mrs. Lipscomb installed Carolyn Sue Goodman as child care chairman. New members enrolled were Alice Puhase, Peggy Jarrett and Janet Waligorski.

Plans were completed for the chapter to participate in Charity Days at the Nameoki Village Shopping Center on Sept. 18 through 20. They will have a booth featuring handmade items for sale and a bake sale set for Sept. 20.

Refreshments were served to 42 members and guests. Prizes awarded during the evening went to Deanne Bryson, Helen Davis and Clara Pelo of Collinsville.

CERTIFICATE OF APPRECIATION is presented to Mrs. Shirley Adams, left, public relations officer for the Granite City Business and Professional Women's Club, by Miss Eileen Burke, membership services director of TV Channel 9. The award was presented to the local club at a luncheon for its efforts in raising nearly $5,000 within four hours for the television station in a fund campaign.

New Johnny Cash film here

The film "The Gospel Road" is to be shown Saturday, Aug. 23, at the First Baptist Church, 21st Street and Delmar Avenue. The showing will begin at 7:30 p.m.

"The Gospel Road," distributed by World Wide Pictures, was conceived and produced by Johnny Cash and his wife, June Carter Cash, whose desire was to tell the story of Jesus Christ in a realistic and meaningful way. The film is a blend of scripture-based narrative, specially written songs, and in-depth character portrayals, with Israel itself as the mixing bowl.

Adding to the effectiveness of "The Gospel Road" in its endeavor to convey reality for this day are: the treatment of the Crucifixion, making this tragedy an event to take on meaning for all men of all ages; and the songs and background music of Johnny Cash and other musicians.

JOHNNY CASH

Xi Theta Omega opens season

Members of Xi Theta Omega Chapter of Beta Sigma Phi Sorority were gathered for the chapter president, Mrs. Pat Chastee, at her home in Collinsville Tuesday night, for a "beginning day" meeting to officially open the year of meetings and projects.

The president reviewed the new club calendar, appointed standing and special committees and led discussions on several service projects and ways and means activities.

Mrs. Cooke Spanberger announced the chapter yearbooks will be completed and distributed at the Sept. 2 meeting to be held in the home of Mrs. Sharon Rush. Mrs. Ellen Wilson will provide the program for the first session on house plants and the proper care and planting.

Sixth birthday of Louis Aleman

Louis John Aleman III, son of Mr. and Mrs. Louis J. Aleman Jr., 2816 Dogwood Drive, celebrated his sixth birthday during the weekend at a party given by his parents in their home.

A circus theme was used for decorations and a racing car and train cake centered the buffet table. Several games were played and prizes awarded.

Refreshments were served to Joey and Gina Mangiaracino, Jeff and Jason Shilt, Stephanie and Tracy Cruse, Tommy Rice, Cindy Weible, Trisha Costello, Jeffery Rosenberg, Erin Bayer and the honoree's brother James Jeffrey.

Guests who attended an evening party for the youngsters were Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Rosenberg and son Jeffrey, Mr. and Mrs. David Cruse and son David Joseph Jr., and Mr. and Mrs. Timothy Feeherry of St. Louis County.

SERVICE COUPLE NAME FIRST CHILD STACIE

Air Force Sergeant and Mrs. Richard E. Ahlers, of Grissom Air Force Base, Hickory Hill, Ind., are announcing the birth of their first child on Aug. 10 at Duke Memorial Hospital, Peru, Ind.

The new arrival has been named Stacie Lynn and weighed seven pounds, one fourth ounce.

Mrs. Ahlers is the former Linda Pilcher, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Pilcher, Rural Route 2, Granite City. Paternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Ahlers also of Granite City.

MRS. ROSE MARTYNEW AT BARNES HOSPITAL

Mrs. Rose Martynew of Madison is a patient at Barnes Hospital, St. Louis, where she is recuperating from major surgery.

She will remain at the hospital for an undetermined length of time and would like to hear from her friends.

BPW to aid Channel 9

Members of the Granite City Business and Professional Women's Club will solicit pledges again this year for Channel 9 television station in a fund campaign from 6 to 10 p.m. Saturday, at the invitation of Mrs. Mary Lou Hudson of Granite City who is a volunteer co-ordinator for Channel 9.

Mrs. Shirley Adams, public relation officer for the local BPW Club, has arranged for other club officers and members to assist with the event.

During the last fund-raising project the local members raised almost $5,000 in a four-hour session at the television station, which was the largest amount by any other organization in the same time allotment.

The Granite City group will be working on a continuous basis and will be on the air between other scheduled programs, according to Mrs. Adams.

Others who have volunteered their time are Mrs. Rosmary Basden, president of the club, and Helen Christich, Rosemary Portell, Edna Kohlbrecher, Sylvia Wright and Pauline Weir.

Briarcliff church plans homecoming

Briarcliff Pentecostal Church, 1120 W. Pontoon Road, will host a homecoming day on Sunday with morning and afternoon events, according to the pastor, the Rev. Wayne Miller.

Sunday school will begin at 10 a.m. followed by worship services at 11 a.m. A potluck dinner will be held in the Fellowship Hall for a noon dinner.

Rev. Miller announced services will be resumed at 1:30 in the afternoon with a special singing program featuring the Frank Wallace family from Granite City.

The public is invited to attend the programs, Rev. Miller added.

Funeral services were conducted at St. Mary's Catholic Church, Chester, Ill., at 11 a.m. today for Jesse S. Colvis, 58, of 15 S. 78th St., Belleville, father of Mrs. Arthur (Deborah) Chastain of Granite City.

He died Sunday at St. Clement Hospital, Red Bud, Mr. Colvis was proprietor of the Custom Asphalt Paving Co., Belleville.

Other survivors are his wife, Kathryn; two sons, two other daughters, a stepson, one brother and one sister.

Continue vandalism at shop

Suburban Barber Shop, Johnson Road and Terrace Lane, was the scene of several acts of vandalism this week as Jesse Harris, the owner, says he has been having problems with three men.

At 8 p.m. Tuesday, a small black car was seen driving west on Johnson Road and turning right onto Terrace Lane and two bricks were thrown from the car and through a plate glass window at the shop.

At 2:15 a.m. Wednesday, police found another plate glass window had been broken with a brick.

Yet another window at the barber shop was broken Monday morning when a bottle was thrown through it and a strong smell of gasoline led police to suspect the bottle was a fire bomb which failed to ignite.

Harris alleged three men have been giving him problems the past two weeks and said one man threatened his life at 2 p.m. Tuesday in the presence of the other two men.

Rites for father of Mrs. Fisher

Funeral services were held at 1 p.m. today at a Belleville funeral home for Raymond Fields Sr., 72, of East St. Louis, father of Mrs. Roy (Jane) Fisher of Granite City.

He died Monday at Missouri Pacific Hospital, St. Louis.

Other survivors include his wife, Mrs. Gladys Fields; one son, two other daughters and three sisters.

Urge that more students be immunized against serious communicable diseases

State Education Supt. Joseph M. Cronin reminded parents this week that Illinois law requires children entering school to be immunized against serious communicable diseases. In addition, he said, the state requires physical examinations for kindergarten, fifth and ninth grade students.

"The lack of immunizations by a substantial number of children could prove serious if an outbreak occurred within the state," Dr. Cronin warned.

He cited a statewide survey conducted this spring by the Illinois Office of Education which showed that Illinois school children fall far short of the prescribed level of immunization for polio and DPT (Diphtheria, pertussis and tetanus).

In addition, unsatisfactory immunization levels are reported for measles and rubella (German measles), according to the survey.

Dr. Cronin said the survey showed that one-fourth of the state's 137,465 kindergarten students last year had less than

A total of 22 per cent of the kindergartners either had no immunization against German measles (rubella) or their schools had no records of that immunization.

Measles vaccine had not been given to 12 per cent of the kindergarten students, enough to cause danger of repeated outbreaks, according to the Illinois Department of Public Health.

"The seriousness of these diseases shouldn't be underestimated," Supt. Cronin said.

"Measles and polio often result in crippling, blindness, deafness and other irreparable damage."

"Diphtheria, whooping cough and tetanus can be fatal to the young child."

"With rubella, the damage is caused when the disease is transmitted to an expectant mother, harming an unborn child and causing birth defects," he added.

He said the only acceptable reasons for not giving a child the adequate immunities are the child's health or religious beliefs.

The survey, conducted last spring, checked immunization and physical examination records of kindergarten students, as well as checking how many fifth and ninth grade students had the required physical exams.

Dr. Cronin noted that only 85 per cent of the state's 137,465 kindergarten students, 77 per cent of the 144,678 fifth grade students and 85 per cent of the 168,808 ninth grade students had the required physical exams.

The survey information is being furnished to public health departments and school administrators throughout the state in order for schools and public health officials to cooperate in remedial efforts, he added.

Credit union strike ends

A salary dispute that resulted in a two-week strike of seven employees of the Granite City Steel Employees Federal Credit Union was resolved Monday in a meeting between the credit union and representatives of the United Steelworkers Union.

Settlement of the issue provides an increase of 30 cents in salaries this year, and an additional 20 cents next year. The union originally demanded 30 cents this year and 30 cents next year, while the company offered 20 cents and 15 cents.

The employees went on strike Aug. 4 in an effort to force settlement of the wage differences. Union officials said only the wage issue remained for settlement in Monday's meeting.

Employees returned to work Tuesday.

RADIO IS STOLEN

A $200 citizens' band radio was stolen from the auto of Jim Rasmussen, Collinsville, Parked at Charlie's Restaurant, Nameoki Road at Madison Avenue, it was reported at 1:50 a.m. Wednesday. The convertible top of the auto had been left down.

State arts grants to Venice, Madison and River Festival

The Illinois Arts Council announced this week it has awarded 28 grants totaling $105,775 to Southern Illinois arts organizations in the largest grant-making session in its history. Recipients include Madison and Venice schools.

A total of $750,652 was awarded statewide by the Arts Council in its Chicago meeting. It also officially welcomed eight new members newly appointed by Governor Daniel Walker to their first meeting.

The largest single grant was $50,000 to the Mississippi River Festival, held at Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville, for its fine arts program.

The Performing Arts Training Center at East St. Louis received a multi-discipline grant of $17,500 for a community arts program.

Two grants, a total of $8,500, went to the Centralia Cultural Society — $5,500 for a full-time professional director and $3,000 for concerts and workshops by the St. Louis Symphony Orchestra in-residence in Centralia.

Southern Repertory Dance Theater, in Carbondale, received three separate grants: $2,500 for three regional dance workshops, $2,000 for Illinois choreographers to create original modern dance works and $750 for professional fees for visiting artists.

Other grants included $3,500 to the Educational Services Region, Cairo, for professional personnel and promotion of community arts programs in dance, music and theater, and $2,000 to the Marjorie Lawrence Opera Theater, Carbondale, for an Opera-on-Wheels touring program to state communities and schools.

SUSPECT 2 OF THEFT

Two men driving an orange GMC van were seen looking at the motorcycle of Fletcher Tate, 4037 Buene Drive Ponton Beach, in the 3900 block of Village Lane minutes before the owner noticed the motorcycle had been stolen. Tate said it is a Harley Davidson Sportster painted "candy-apple" red and having much chrome.

The Effingham Choral Group and the Effingham Band were supported indirectly with $775 going for their performances at Lake Land College (Mattoon).

Additionally, arts organization in Alton, Carbondale, Collinsville, Danville, Eldorado, East St. Louis, Grand Tower, Madison, Mascoutah, Mt. Vernon, Murphysboro, Olney, Vandalia, Venice and Warsaw also received awards.

Awards include $50 to the Madison school system and $250 to the Venice school district, both for concerts by Young Audiences of St. Louis.

Prelude Ballet of Collinsville received $750 for dance concert choreographers.

The Council rejected four applications from the Southern Illinois Community Arts Association, a year-old group seeking to represent other arts organizations. The four applications requested a total of $78,000, more money than has ever been given any grantee anywhere in the state.

Bruce Sagan, chairman of the Arts Council, said the proposals were unrealistic and violated many of the Council's policies. He added, "We explained the Council's policies carefully to Clifton Callahan, the director, but he made proposals which we cannot fund. He seems to prefer claiming we refuse to fund him rather than to submit reasonable proposals."

Southern Illinois Community Arts Association is presently operating on a grant of $4,100 which the Arts Council made to it last spring. The Council has refused to renew the grant.

The eight Arts Council members seated are Herbert Nipson, executive editor of Ebony Magazine (a resignation); James Ballowe, Peoria poet and dean of the graduate school of Bradley University; Larry Booth, Chicago architect; Mrs. Leon Despres of Chicago, head of the Chicago School of Architecture Foundation; Mrs. Irving Harris of Chicago; Mrs. Arnold Powell of Rockford; Walter Thompson, Bloomington painter and an art teacher at Illinois Wesleyan University; and Gilbert Wright, president of the National Academy of Art, Champaign.

Citizens group to work for school bond issue

Four major committees that will work for passage of a proposed $800,000 bond issue for Madison School District 12 were established Tuesday night in a meeting of the Citizens Advisory Committee, representatives of the Illinois Bureau of Consulting Service and members of the School Board.

More than 70 persons met in the Madison Recreation Center to discuss plans for informing the public of the need for the bond issue, its potential cost to the taxpayers and other data pertinent to a Sept. 27 referendum vote on the proposal.

John Palchiff, superintendent of schools, told the group that the proceeds of the bond issue are needed to finance the local share of construction of a $2,528,464 junior high school.

A state grant of $1,769,925 has been approved by the Illinois

Capital Development board, with the remainder of the cost to be provided by the school district, Palchiff said.

To present details of the program to the public, the group established a Speakers' Bureau, a Materials Development Committee, a Neighborhood Visitation Committee and an Election Day Committee.

The Speakers Bureau, which will provide speakers to explain the program at public meetings, will be chaired by Earl McClanahan, principal of the Madison Junior High School. Mrs. Donna Woodward was named chairman of the Materials Development Committee which will provide information on the program.

Mrs. Margaret Blackbore was appointed chairman of the Neighborhood Visitation Committee. A chairman of the Election Day Committee is to be named later.

William Seipe, Naperville, Ill., representing the Illinois School Consulting Service, outlined an election timetable and told the meeting that the consulting service will participate actively in developing public favor of the bond issue proposal.

Palchiff explained that the bond issue is not expected to result in an additional tax rate to retire principal of the bonds. He said school officials believe it will be possible to sell the bonds with only interest payments to be made the first two years.

The school district now has a general obligation bond issue that will be retired in two years, Palchiff noted, eliminating the present tax rate for that purpose.

The chairman of the committees and volunteer workers are to meet Tuesday at 7:30 p.m. in the recreation center.

Venice to make own sewer study

Venice street department employees will conduct most of a survey of the city's sanitary sewers under an agreement reached Tuesday night by the city's consulting engineering firm and the City Council.

George Shanahan, planner and engineer with the Sheppard, Morgan and Schwaab consulting and engineering firm of Granite City, told the council members during the regular City Council meeting Tuesday night that he believes four street department employees can conduct most of the survey of the city's sewers.

The sewers are being inspected inside using mirrors and sunlight, where possible, relying upon television cameras only where necessary.

Shanahan said he is certain the vast majority of the sewers can be inspected with mirrors by the street department employees, who also can identify areas where other means of inspection will be required.

The city later will contract with a firm to televise the inside of the sewers where breaks have been experienced and where the street department workers were unable to inspect with mirrors.

It was noted at the council meeting that an inspection of the city's entire sanitary sewer system has not been undertaken since 1962 and is overdue. Shanahan cautioned that the mirror method of inspecting the sewers is much slower than using television cameras, but that the cost will be much lower. He said within the first two weeks of the program, he will be able to give the city a rough estimate of the time required to complete the inspection.

He emphasized that quality work, complete inspections and properly filling out the report will be more important than speed in the sewer study.

He said he would devote one or two days to training the street department workers in the methods of inspection and in how to properly complete the forms for each section of sewer, each manhole and each of the other parts of the sewer system.

Assistant Street Superintendent Clarence Bradley will head the crew which is checking the sewers. Venice, like all other nearby communities, has been experiencing a series of sewer breaks, caused by a high water table which has washed out much of the dirt supporting the sewer lines. The survey will aid planners in determining how the sewers should be maintained, altered and repaired.

The council also heard a report from Art Kittenhofen, resident engineer for the city on the Broadway relocation work. He said sinking wellpoints and pumping to lower the water table under the railroad underpass has been successful and concrete should be poured soon, although the ground is not dry.

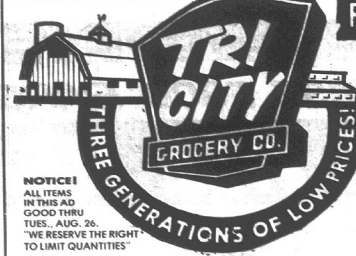

He said the entire project is 40 per cent complete, but 60 per cent of the allocated days have been used. He indicated the work crews should be able to "catch up" on the schedule by working rapidly on concrete pouring and other portions of the work.

The board approved the purchase of four uniforms for civil defense personnel who will serve as auxiliary policemen and firemen in the event of a disaster of severe problems in the city.

The uniforms were purchased without bidding under a city procedure by which aldermen, on a three-fourths vote of the council, can make purchases without competitive bidding.

Civil Defense Director Benjamin Honorable was authorized to purchase the uniforms. He said when four persons are appointed to serve in the auxiliary aid positions, they will be trained and will attend schooling to become familiar with their tasks.

Occupancy permits required under Venice housing code

Mayor William "Mike" Ebersold of Venice reminded residents Tuesday that the city's new housing inspection ordinance now is in effect, requiring that all apartments or homes be inspected by the city before they can be rented or sold.

The ordinance requires the city inspector to examine any home or apartment before certifying that it meets the city's occupancy code. Once approved, the city issues the apartment or home an occupancy permit which is required before utilities will turn on the electricity, gas or water for a new owner.

Ebersold said there have been a few incidents where persons, unaware of the ordinance, had moved into dwelling units and had been unable to get the utilities turned on.

He suggested all residents have the dwelling units inspected when they are vacant and before renting or selling units. He said arrangements for building inspections may be made by contacting the city hall.

Ebersold's comments were made during Tuesday night's Venice City Council meeting. The council appointed Mrs. Addie Mae Meredith, 1228 Logan St., a Third Ward resident, to fill one of two vacancies on the Venice Library Board. The second vacancy is to be filled in the near future.

A resolution was passed authorizing the East St. Louis Interurban Water Co. to install a fire hydrant at the southwest corner of Logan Avenue and Line Alley.

Permission and necessary funds were granted to the Venice Senior Citizens group to take a bus Sept. 16 to Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville to attend a seminar on senior citizens. The costs are to be paid from the city's federal revenue sharing fund.

The council authorized Ebersold to sign a proclamation declaring Sept. 27 a day to honor hunting and fishing in the state. The annual Hunting and Fishing Day honors the sportsmen, hunting and fishing organizations and conservation officials. The annual observance is sponsored by the Illinois Municipal League.

The councilmen and city officials were invited to a banquet at 6 p.m. Saturday, Sept. 12, at the Venice Recreation Center, sponsored by the Venice Unintouchable baseball team. Willie Teal, the Venice Park District recreation director, is to be the main speaker.

The officials also were invited to participate in the annual Newport Homecoming activities Aug. 30 and 31 and Sept. 1.

Due to the large number of items remaining on the agenda, the council called a special meeting at 6:30 p.m. Tuesday, Aug. 26, at which the city's tax levy, street lighting, demolition of buildings and the minimum standards housing ordinance are to be discussed.

FIRE DAMAGES HOUSE
 A pre-dawn fire Monday night caused about $500 damage to a vacant house at 2333 Madison Ave., which is used at Halloween each year as a haunted house project by Explorers. The fire damaged the rear of the house, the rear door and a shed. Firemen were on the scene one hour. The cause of the fire could not be determined.

MISS JULIA MAE AND YO-YO, who will host a special bible hour nightly from Sunday through Friday, Aug. 29, at Central Free Methodist Church, 4150 South Street, Pontoon Beach. The ventriloquist and children's worker will offer, in addition to routines with Yo-Yo, felt-o-gram stories, prizes and activities. Children between 5 and 14 years-of-age are invited to attend the sessions, which will begin at 7 p.m. each evening.

Faces 6 charges

Robert C. Norman, 59, of 2400 Lynch Ave., was charged with aggravated battery, resisting a peace officer, leaving the scene of an accident, failure to give information after striking property, illegal transportation of liquor and driving while under the influence of liquor after police alleged he was involved in a series of accidents in the 2300 block of Madison Avenue at 8:50 p.m. Tuesday.

Officers said they saw a car with its right front tire flat, driving north on Madison Avenue and towing a large trailer. They said the auto sideswiped the pickup truck of Norman Parish, 76 Maurene Court, parked in the 2300 block, and then continued north.

They said the auto then struck two large mail boxes in front of the U.S. Post Office, knocking them over and damaging them.

Officers stopped the car in the 2400 block of Madison Avenue and charged the driver used profanity toward officers. He was arrested and police reported finding an open bottle of liquor in the front seat of the car.

They took Norman to the police station and said that while in the squad room, he used profanity and struck one officer's chest. Force had to be used to subdue him, police said.

They then attempted to book him into jail and alleged he broke out fighting again and tried to strike officers. Force again had to be used to subdue him and put him in jail, it was charged.

Later, he was allowed out of the jail cell to use the telephone in the squad room, and officers said he again tried to strike an officer.

At 1 a.m. Wednesday, Norman was released from jail on a notice to appear in court at a later date.

WOMAN HIT, ROBBED

Patricia White, 3705 Kirkpatrick Homes, reported at 1:25 p.m. Tuesday that she had been beaten and robbed by another woman. She said she, a woman and a man were at Namooki Road and Palmer Avenue when the woman pulled her from the car, beat her, threw her on the ground several times and took her purse, containing $20 in food stamps, a $50 check and her glasses.

Congress pushes coal fund bill

By JOAN MURARO

SPRINGFIELD — Things appear to be looking up, energy-wise, for the state of Illinois, in the push for outside money to develop energy sources, particularly the state's enormous coal deposits.

Sidney Marder, head of the energy division of the department of Business and Economic Development (BED) said that due to the combined efforts of the state's delegation in Washington, House passage has been secured and Senate prospects look good for establishment of a federal coal extraction research facility at Carbondale. The interim grant involved would be about $370,000, Marder said, with a total of $1.5 million for the first fiscal year.

The state itself announced funding of a state-supported coal extraction center at Carbondale, and this facility has been the focal point of attempts to get the federal project located there, Marder said, since the state spokesmen have been able to offer use of the buildings and the equipment already there, to federal personnel.

"The only facility anywhere like it in this area," Marder said, "is located at Twin Falls, Minn., and when they want to do some research they fly their people to Carbondale or they fly the coal to Twin Falls."

Support for Illinois' bid for the funding came from "about 92 people who all get credit," Marder said, stressing this joint push in Washington from Sens. Adlai Stevenson and Charles Percy, from Reps. Sid Yates, Paul Simon and others.

The bill which passed the House will not go to the Senate until after the August congressional recess, but Marder said the nature of the operation at Carbondale is such that federal participation could begin rapidly once approval was given, since what would be involved would be moving personnel into an existing facility, with no delays for construction or installation.

Meanwhile, he said, members of the BED energy division, Gov. Walker and representatives of the energy resources commission have met with various groups also considering locating various energy projects in the state. Marder says his office is optimistic about at least a couple of them.

One of these, Coalcon, a consortium operation which is considering locating a $237 million coal conversion plant in southern Illinois, presently looks "very favorable," Marder said, since representatives of the operation so far have made six visits to the proposed site.

Representatives of Coalcon are to report to the Energy Resources Development Agency (ERDA) by next Jan. 1, but ERDA could grant the group an extension as it did on another project Illinois is seeking to snag, a General Electric Co. coal-to-electricity operation, also for southern Illinois.

Presently, the GE project looks hopeful, too, Marder says, since of the original four bidders, only two — including Illinois — remains in the running, and the other bid apparently is for a smaller operation.

Catches 12-foot fish off Florida

Glen Mefford, 5107 Maryville Road, relates that a 12-foot, 285-pound Blue Marlin fish was caught by his son, Jack, near Bimini Island off the coast of Florida.

Jack Mefford, formerly of Granite City and now living in Fort Lauderdale, landed the catch by himself but it took three other persons to help bring the fish aboard a 40-foot yacht they were fishing from.

Cycle racer hurt

William Carter, 24, of Houston, Texas, suffered cuts and bruises to his right shoulder Tuesday night when his motorcycle slid out from under him, causing a fall, during a racing event at Tri-City Speedway.

He was taken to St. Elizabeth Hospital and was treated before being released.

Halted school buses require stop by cars going both ways

School buses which have been quietly parked in lots for the summer are beginning to rumble back on the roads to pick up Illinois children for the new school year. Some buses transported students to orientation sessions here today. Each school day, nearly 800,000 Illinois students — or one-third of the school children in the state — will climb on buses to ride a total 657,295 miles to their respective schools.

State Supt. of Education Joseph M. Cronin is reminding drivers to watch for the big yellow buses on their way to schools in the morning and again as they drop off children each afternoon.

He noted that Sept. 2 through 8 has been designated as National School Bus Safety Week. In addition, he said, Gov. Daniel Walker will be signing a proclamation calling on Illinois citizens to observe the week.

Focus of the week this year will be to create renewed awareness in the state's drivers to stop for school buses loading and unloading children.

Cronin observed that drivers often are aware they should stop when they are following a bus, but don't realize they also must stop when approaching a bus.

"When the red flashing lights go on and the stop arm goes out, any driver approaching or following a school bus must stop and wait for children to get on or off that bus," Dr. Cronin said.

"Let's make this another safe school year for our children by observing the laws which help keep school buses one of the safest forms of transportation on the road today," he concluded.

Venice man named on five charges

Jerome Kirkland, 19, of 1104 Douglas St., Venice, was arrested by Madison police at 2:40 p.m. Wednesday on five charges which police said resulted from an incident Aug. 13 in which Kirkland allegedly fled from officers.

Kirkland was charged with disorderly conduct, unlawful use of a license or permit, having no valid driver's license, escape, and driving a car without a light over the license plate.

Police said Kirkland was the driver of a car which was stopped at Bissell Street and W. Second Street on Aug. 13 by officers who alleged Kirkland gave them the driver's license of another man. Kirkland was charged with running from the scene while the officers were questioning other occupants of the car.

OUR ENERGY NON-POLICY

By

LESTER W. BRANN, JR.
President
Illinois State
Chamber of Commerce

A straightforward, comprehensive energy policy is critical today, even at the state government level.

No business firm would think about locating a plant somewhere without reasonable assurance that adequate energy will be available. Next year's energy needs and costs are a vital part of this year's economic planning in business.

It should be the same for the State of Illinois. But it isn't. Our state's public energy policy is fragmented and incomplete. Public bodies and officials openly compete.

Let me cite a recent observation in the energy industry publication Coal Week:

"Meanwhile attempts by Illinois state officials to lure the Coalcon gasification project to their state have become ensnared in political scene-stealing maneuvers at the state capitol in Springfield."

"At stake are the political brownie points likely to accrue to whomever can claim credit for helping to revitalize the state's somewhat comatose coal industry. Although Illinois sits atop the largest coal deposits in the nation... it is fourth in actual production after Kentucky, West Virginia and Pennsylvania."

Competition is fine, but in this case we should be directing our competitive skills at luring to Illinois those energy development projects that other states want equally as badly.

There is much the state could be doing about the energy situation. Admittedly, many of the decisions are made on the federal level. But not all. The state has a responsibility to help develop Illinois' vast coal reserves and to explore the potential of solar heat in the midwest region—to name just two areas of involvement.

Energy is a key factor not only in the economic development of Illinois, but also in the continued economic viability of our state. That means jobs, both new ones and the ones we have now.

The opportunity is too great and too vital to be missed.

Shelter care home sale averted

The Madison County Shelter Care Home was saved from the threat of demolition by members of the Madison County Board yesterday, who opposed a plan to sell the building to the Madison County Housing Authority.

The housing authority planned to construct a high-rise apartment building for the low-income elderly, using the property on which the shelter care home rests. Although the intent of the resolution originally submitted was not clear, the wording would have allowed the housing authority to purchase the entire 11.6 acres, including the property on which the shelter care home is located.

Petitions containing about 1,000 signatures of county residents against sale of the shelter care home were submitted to the County Board.

Board members finally agreed upon a compromise measure to sell 4.5 acres of the property to the housing authority, specifically noting that the property was not to include the site of the existing building.

County Board Chairman Nelson Hagnauer of Granite City strongly supported the original resolution, saying the shelter care home would not have been affected and that a $2.5 million federal grant was at stake. Board Member Daniel Partney of Granite City objected to the plan, saying that the housing authority's plan contained "too many sketchy details."

Partney said that plans for

$2,500 loss in house fire

Fire that apparently was caused by a short in an extension cord caused damage of $1,000 to the home of Daisy Welch, 2301 E. 20th St., and a loss of $1,500 in contents, at 5:45 p.m. Tuesday.

Firemen were at the scene an hour and 10 minutes.

Granite City firemen also were called at 11:05 a.m. Tuesday to the apartment of Jim Fitchuth, 2053 near Cleveland Blvd., where fire caused $150 damage to the building and $100 damage to the contents.

Firemen reported the fire apparently was caused by defective piping of a gas range.

the high-rise building were hastily conceived under an upcoming grant deadline, and that there were no assurances that a $2-million revenue bond issue to finance the construction would not eventually be paid off by tax funds.

Partney also objected to a federal requirement that Edwardsville area residents be given preference for apartments in the building, saying that Edwardsville or Edwardsville Township should sponsor the project, not the County Board.

Board Member Louis Whitsell of Namecki Township also was among those objecting to the original plan.

My father is selling me a new house which seems to meet the qualifications for the housing credit under the Tax Reduction Act of 1975. Is there any reason why it can't be claimed? — Mrs. J.W. Deaver, Cole.

A. You cannot claim the credit for a purchase from your spouse, ancestors or lineal descendants or from a related corporation, partnership or trust.

U.S. warns against botulism danger

Last year, an estimated six million Americans tried home gardening for the first time. Many of them also tried canning the produce from their gardens.

This year, the number of home gardeners and canners is expected to be even greater, especially in view of the growing community garden movement.

The U.S. Department of Agriculture points out that last year's canning boom had one serious side-effect. There were 30 outbreaks of food-borne botulism involving 30 persons — the largest number of such outbreaks since 1950. Of the 30 cases, seven died, five from home canned foods.

Because of the danger to novice canners, the agriculture department held a series of regional news conferences to alert consumers to the dangers of improper home canning procedures.

Specialists from the University of Illinois provided information to news media representatives on the home canning situation, including the 1975 supply outlook and the dangers of botulism. Botulism is acute food poisoning caused by ingestion of the toxin formed during the growth of the bacteria clostridium botulinum. All low-acid foods are potential carriers of the bacteria, which multiply in the absence of oxygen, such as in an improperly processed can. Even those who are not planning to do any canning this summer should be aware of safe food buying, handling and cooking practices.

Sue Beck, consumer specialist for the Animal and Plant Health Inspection Service offers some suggestions for safe food handling:

— Shop for groceries last after all other errands have been run; take foods home immediately and don't leave them unattended for a long period of time.

— Make sure the foods you select are in good condition. Never buy swollen or leaking cans. Call them to the attention of the store manager and suggest he remove them from the shelf. The food in a swollen or leaking can may be dangerous to eat or even to taste.

— Select refrigerated and frozen foods last before going to the checkout counter so they'll have less time to warm up. Make sure frozen foods are hard-frozen and kept below the frostline in the freezer. The temperature should be 0 degrees or below.

— Ask the checkout clerk to bag the foods together so that they stay cold longer. Take perishable items home and refrigerate or freeze them immediately.

— Keep hot foods hot (above 140 degrees Fahrenheit) and cold foods cold (below 40 degrees F). Food may not be safe to eat if held more than two hours at temperature between 40 and 140 degrees F, including all the time of preparation, storage and serving.

Use a meat thermometer to test meat for doneness. Although beef may be eaten rare, 140 degrees F, always cook pork and poultry thoroughly. The meat thermometer should indicate 170 degrees F for pork and 180 to 190 degrees F for poultry.

Shipley's future seems uncertain

By AL MANNING

SPRINGFIELD — U.S. Rep. George Shipley of Ohio has resigned as a member of the Democratic State Central Committee.

Cyril L. Givens of Paris, who works for Gov. Dan Walker, was chosen as his replacement by the county committee. The committee included in the East Central Illinois Congressional District.

Shipley told the chairman he was resigning because the time he is required to spend in Washington does not permit him to attend enough of the committee meetings. Since proxy voting is not allowed on the committee, he suggested someone else serve who could attend more regularly.

"I couldn't do the job justice," Shipley said in a telephone interview. "It's a job that requires somebody who is in the state. Many of the committee meetings seemed to be on Thursday, and that's our busiest day in Washington."

Shipley, who has served nine terms in Congress, is being mentioned by political leaders as a potential candidate for lieutenant governor. He would only say "I don't know what the future will bring."

However, the 49-year-old representative made it clear he does not plan to retire from politics.

There is widespread speculation about potential candidates for the Democratic nomination for lieutenant governor because of the split between Gov. Walker and Lt.

Gov. Neil Hartigan. It's considered unlikely at this point that they would run together as a team next year. Hartigan could challenge Walker himself or he could be a running-mate to someone else who did not seek an other office.

Shipley was elected to the state committee last year as a compromise candidate. At that time, State Sen. Terry Bruce of Olney had pledged to challenge the incumbent member, Dick Hershey of Taylorville, and it was causing quite a rift among the Democrats in that area of the state. The politicians urged Shipley to run as a compromise candidate and he was elected without opposition.

When Shipley resigned, Hershey planned to seek his old seat, but then changed his mind.

Givens, who is secretary of the Edgar County organization, defeated two other candidates for the seat in an election held in Effingham.

He received 25,570 votes to 9,462 for Robert Whitmer of Robinson, the Crawford County chairman and state attorney. John Keith of Hillsboro, a lawyer and staff assistant to Senate President Cecil Parrott, received 4,553 votes.

Givens began work in 1973 as a $1,400-a-month technical adviser in the state Department of Transportation.

His election by the county chairman is considered particularly significant because of his job in the Walker administration. Walker has had poor relations with most of the county chairmen in the state, and he has not had many boosters on the state central committee, either.

OUTDOOR TRAILS

Dells is beauty in panorama

By ART SCHUMANN

The outdoor sportsman has always had an appreciation for the beauty of natural unspoiled surroundings. While his travels may take him to remote areas to enjoy such places, it is not always necessary to do so.

Sometimes the beauty of nature can be found surprisingly close to home. Another example of this was provided with a recent visit to the Wisconsin Dells on the Wisconsin River.

In recent years the Dells has been publicized as a tourist attraction, which often gives the impression that it has taken on a carnival atmosphere. Nothing could be further from the truth.

While the nearby towns of Wisconsin Dells and Lake Delton, situated in the heart of the Dells region, are highly commercialized, the natural beauty of the 15 miles of river shoreline comprising the famous Dells remains untouched by man.

Once leaving the boat dock for a trip through the upper or lower Dells, it seems as if one is passing back through time hundreds of years.

The Dells were formed from the sea which swept over the area three times during the Cambrian period of the Paleozoic Era (500 million years ago), from the erosion of the Wisconsin River and the weathering effects of nature.

The Dells are a mass of unusual sandstone formations, cliffs and canyons. Varieties of conifers and hardwood trees like the shoreline and sandstone cliffs. More than 25 varieties of ferns grow throughout the Dells and an assortment of wild flowers contrast sharply with the deep green foliage.

No development is allowed for 300 feet on each side of the river and still unspoiled are some of the most outstanding scenery in the state. Famous sights as Chimney Rock, Black Hawk's Head, the Twin Sisters, Cold Water Canyon, Stan Witches Gulch.

It was obvious tourists appreciate the natural beauty of the Dells and try to preserve it. There was no litter anywhere, a far cry from the past.

To be sure, there is much commercialism in the Dells region, with the area being laden with modern motels, restaurants and commercial enterprises to attract the tourist. However, most of these are only a supplement to the main attraction, the upper and lower Dells.

Those visiting the Dells should make an effort to see two attractions in particular, the Lost Canyon and Biblical Gardens. Both are located in the heart of the Dells region, and the scenery the Dells has to offer and are being preserved in their natural state.

The responsibility of preserving the Dells lies with the Wisconsin Alumni Research Association and its wholly-owned subsidiary, the Dells Boat Co., Inc.

The association received a donation of the 15 miles of Wisconsin River frontage from two families who purchased it in order to preserve it for future generations. The University of Wisconsin conducts valuable forestry research on both sides of the river.

Nothing is done on the river itself that would change its natural beauty. One of the former owners of the Dells summarized his outlook when he said, "No one can own the Dells. He can only be a custodian for a time."

On virtually all A&P products—grocery, dairy, and bakery—where freshness is essential to quality, we print a date in plain language. No codes. This is what we call the PULL DATE: the last day on which the product may be sold as fresh. After that date, it is pulled from the shelf. But this does not mean that it's the last day you can use the product and still expect it to be fresh. We allow for a reasonable time to store and use the product at home. Milk, for example, if refrigerated, can be used for seven days from the time when you bought it.

Suspect arson in Venice fire

Venice firemen were investigating today the possibility of arson in a fire that damaged a one-story, frame house at 411 Necedola St. at 10:30 p.m. Tuesday. The house is owned by Claude Garrett, and was vacant at the time of the fire.

Firemen were at the scene 25 minutes and reported that there was a strong odor of gasoline.

Venice firemen also were called at 8:45 p.m. Tuesday to a vacant house at 1002 Logan St., where they extinguished a burning pile of rags in a corner of the two-story frame house. They were at the scene 15 minutes, and reported that several children threw rocks at the firemen and the fire trucks.

Stolen from yard

The apparent theft of an Australian Katakula dog was reported Wednesday by Mrs. Mary Uherich, 3004 Nankook Road, who said the dog, which she acquired recently, disappeared from her yard early Tuesday.

The medium-sized dog is grey with black spots and white feet and answers to the name of Bucksnot. She asked that anyone with knowledge of the dog's whereabouts notify Granite City police.

Charge cyclist

Gary Smith, 19, of Rural Route Two, Box 1175, Granite City, was charged with a stop sign violation at 18th Street and Niedringhaus Avenue, with attempting to elude police and with a license classification violation after police alleged chasing his motorcycle at 5 p.m. Tuesday.

Harvey Broyles, 21, of 1942 Adams St., a passenger on the motorcycle, was charged with riding without eye protection.

Monarch butterfly joins oak, violet, cardinal, fluorite as state symbols

Gov. Dan Walker on Tuesday signed House Bill 804, making the Monarch Butterfly the state insect of Illinois.

He also signed a measure that prohibits animal fights and vetoed another bill.

"I am also signing a bill which outlaws animal fights. I know of few more cruel and callous acts than to set up a situation where roosters or dogs or cats try and tear each other apart."

"That is not a sport in any sense of the world. It is an act of senseless cruelty."

The legislation (Senate Bill 173) prohibits animal fights for sport, wagering or entertainment. The measure also makes attendance at an animal fight a misdemeanor.

"It is a graceful creature, it has stature and it is handsome. It joins the oak, violet, the cardinal, and the mineral fluorite as state symbols."

The bill prohibits ownership and sale of animals for fighting purposes and the use of property for animal fights.

Ownership of a fighting animal is punishable by up to three years in prison. Manufacture and ownership of animal fighting equipment is also banned by the bill.

Gov. Walker vetoed House Bill 54, which was less comprehensive than, Senate Bill 173 in that it banned only dog fights.

The famous Abraham Lincoln and Stephen Douglas debates began on Aug. 21, 1858.

STATE FLAG PRESENTATION to Kevin Kearns (left), president of the law enforcement specialty post, by State Senator Sam Vadalabene. With David Embry as host, Post 10-4 annually breakfasts with public officials and citizens before departing for a "super activity." Last year's destination was Washington, D. C.; this year's visit is to the Rocky Mountains of Colorado.

Explorers in Colorado

More than 200 family members, friends, and special guests gathered at 7 a.m. Saturday at the Granite City McDonald's Restaurant to participate in the second annual "Bon Voyage" breakfast of Explorer Post 10-4.

The 30 area Explorers, sponsored by Madison Police Unit 110, left at 8 a.m. for a seven-day sightseeing trip to the Colorado Springs and Denver area.

"Sgt. Otto," an unusual Volkswagen used by Madison police, escorted the group traveling in the "Big Mac," a luxury coach belonging to the restaurant chain, to 1-70 with its siren sounding and red lights flashing.

Prior to the group's departure the Explorers were the breakfast guests of David Embry, owner of the local McDonald's.

Six special appreciation certificates with the post's official emblem on them were presented by Kevin Kearns, post president.

Certificates of appreciation were presented to Jack Simpson, chairman of the congregation of the Polish National Catholic Church, Madison, in behalf of the church members who every year at their polka festival invite the Explorers to operate a booth to raise funds for their trips; Ronald Grywacz, owner of the G. & C. Gar Wash who has assisted the members in several money-earning projects; the Madison County Deputy Sheriff's Association which purchased the group tickets on the cog railroad that will take them to the top of Pike's Peak; the group's sponsors who according to Kearns always helps the post pick up the slack between what it earns and what it needs financially; Arno Sponekan, a member of the group's adult committee who also is a transportation specialist for the McDonald's restaurant chain and has driven the group in the "Big Mac" coach every year; and Embry, a principal sponsor of the group's "super activity" trips.

Special guests at the breakfast included: Mayors Paul Schuler of Granite City and Mike Sasyk of Madison; State Sen. Sam Vadalabene, former State Instruction Supt. George T. Wilkins Sr.; Madison Police Chief Frank Dutko and Officer Frank Steiner, Press-Record Editor William F. Winter. Scouters Henry D. Karand-

Jeff, Dr. Thomas Layloff and Norman Kinder, Croatian Lodge President Joseph Gudac, Administrative Assistant Frank Paps of the City of Madison, District Scout Executive Ned Freeman.

Assistant Granite City Police Chief George Teller, Juvenile Officers Donald Bridick of Madison and Donald Patrick of Pontoon Beach, and Pat Morris and Andy Economy.

Pontoon arrest

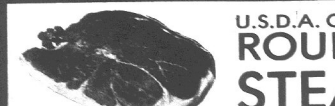

Charles Cox, 32, of 2241 Miracle Ave., was arrested by Pontoon Beach police early this week and was charged with assault and criminal trespass to property.

Gary Mayes, 4124 South Drive, Pontoon Beach, alleged that Cox came to his home, declined to leave and threatened Mayes.

Granite City is investigating the shredding of Cox's clothing while he was in the jail. The clothes clogged plumbing in the entire jail cell area.

Weddings, Engagements and Anniversary in area

Jill Ann Langenstein is wed in candlelight

Miss Jill Ann Langenstein and Jeffrey Lynn Parker exchanged wedding vows July 26 in a double ring ceremony performed by the Rev. Robert Kettelhut at St. Peter Evangelical United Church of Christ.

Bouquets of white blossoms intermingled with green foliage adorned the altar, and candlelight illuminated the sanctuary for the 6 o'clock evening service.

Parents of the bride are Mr. and Mrs. Jan Langenstein, 2516 Delmar Ave.

The groom is a son of Mrs. Ruby Zannarino of 425 Wickford Drive, Pittsburgh, Pa., and the late Clio Parker.

Wedding music was furnished by the Casuals.

For her wedding, the former Miss Langenstein chose a white mink suit over taffeta gown designed with a tucked bodice. It featured a modified V-neckline and bishop sleeves enhanced with Venice lace.

Matching lace motifs were applied on the flounced skirt, edged in a lace trim. It swept into a chapel train.

She wore a tiara of tiny flowers to secure an elbow-length veil and carried a bouquet of roses.

A sister of the bride, Mrs. Jean Ann Beggs, was matron of honor. Bridesmaids included Miss Cindy Crews, Mrs. Rita Conway and Miss Lorraine Patton.

Their chiffon over taffeta gowns were created in rainbow hues of lime green, coral, lilac and mauve. Self fabric ruffles edged the collars and sleeves and encircled the shirt hemline.

Each attendant wore a white picture hat trimmed with ribbon streamers to match her gown and held a single rose. Gary Lee Beggs Jr., a nephew of the bride, was the ringbearer and Cara Crews served as flower girl. She wore a pastel colored frock and matching picture hat, and carried a basket of flower petals.

Mike Jones, a cousin of the groom, was best man.

Gary Beggs Sr., a brother-in-law of the bride, Bob Conway, Fred Shelton, Jon Langenstein, the bride's brother, and Cliff Yeager completed the corps of groomsmen and ushers.

The newly married Mr. and Mrs. Parker greeted guests at a reception held at the Elks Club after the ceremony.

A rehearsal dinner was served at Charlie's Restaurant.

Both young people are graduates of Granite City High School. The bride also attended the Hickey Business School, Clayton, Mo. Her husband is employed by Illinois Central Gulf Railroad as a special agent.

They are residing in Granite City.

MR. AND MRS. JEFFREY L. PARKER. Their wedding took place at St. Peter Evangelical United Church of Christ. Formerly Miss Jill Ann Langenstein, the bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jan Langenstein, 2516 Delmar Ave.

Charles Tanksleys mark golden anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. Charles (Myrtle) Tanksley, 2408 Anchorage Homes, celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary at an afternoon reception last week at the Anchorage Recreation Hall.

The reception was given and attended by the Tanksley children and their families, including Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Tanksley Jr., Mr. and Mrs. John Tanksley, Mr. and Mrs. James Allison, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Tanksley, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Tanksley, all local residents and Bill Tanksley of Tacoma, Wash., Mr. and Mrs. Gene Erby, St. Louis, and Mr. and Mrs. Ken Tanksley of Detroit, Mich.

Guest tables were decorated with bud vases of yellow pom poms encircled with greenery and the main table was skirted with white netting and centered with bouquets of yellow blossoms and a tiered anniversary cake. The gift table was ornate with a floral money tree given to the honorees by their grandchildren.

Mr. and Mrs. Tanksley moved here in 1928 from Tamm, Ill. Mr. Tanksley started working at Granite City Steel in 1928 and retired from the plant in 1967.

The guests of honor attended Tri-City Park Tabernacle Church for 34 years and are now members of Glenview Chapel Pentecostal Church which they joined in 1969. Mr. Tanksley also belongs to the John Marshall Gun Club.

Grandchildren attending the afternoon event were Keith, Larry, Sheila, Rich, Mike, Michelle, Vicki, Steve, Rhonda, Rodney, Jeff and Johnna Lou Tanksley, Darren and Mark Erby, John Allison and Sheldon Hendricks.

Out-of-town guests were the Rev. and Mrs. R. D. Shaw of Pacific, Mo., Mr. and Mrs. Robert McGee of Alton, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Blomkamp of Hazelwood, Mo., and Mr. and Mrs. Gene Obermier of St. Louis, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Knight, St. Charles, Mo., and Mr. and Mrs. Vahanan Norsigian of Belleville.

MR. AND MRS. CHARLES TANKSLEY, 2408 Anchorage Homes, who were honored on their golden anniversary at a reception given by their family at the Anchorage Recreation Hall last week.

Annette Favier becomes Mrs. Michael McKinney

Miss Annette Marie Favier, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John C. Favier, 2100 Amos Ave., and Michael Scott McKinney, son of Mr. and Mrs. Bob McKinney of Mexico, Mo., formerly of Granite City, exchanged wedding vows in an early afternoon ceremony on Aug. 9 at St. Elizabeth Roman Catholic Church.

The Rt. Rev. Msgr. Lawrence Mattingly officiated at a double-ring service at 2 o'clock. Large bouquets of multi-color tipped mums interspersed with greenery adorned the altar and stephanotis tied with white satin bows marked the pews.

Mrs. Leeta Litka sang, "Sunrise, Sunset," "Ave Maria," "A Time for Us" and "The Lord's Prayer." She was accompanied by Mrs. Irene Barrick at the organ.

Mr. Favier escorted his daughter down the white-carpeted aisle and gave her in marriage. She chose a full-length white silk organza empire-style gown worn with a lace bordered mantilla veil attached to a lace camelot headpiece.

A tiny floral Venice lace trim formed the high neckline, traced the oval sheer yoke and encircled the waistline.

Matching lace motifs were repeated on the long full sleeves and tightly fitted cuffs and a wide band of Venice lace topped a deep flounce on the skirt which extended into a full sweep train.

She carried a cascade bouquet of white roses, pom poms, carnations intermingled with orchid pom poms and baby's breath and festooned with white streamers.

Miss Kimberly Worster, maid of honor, was dressed in an orchid voile gown fashioned with a white-dotted swiss empire bodice featuring a scoop neckline.

The high rise waistline and gathered flounce at the hemline was marked with white Venice lace. A short dotted swiss jacket designed with angel sleeves and accented with white lace completed her attire.

Bridesmaids Miss Toby Salem of Belleville, Miss Mary Favier, a sister of the bride, Miss Kathy Werner and Mrs. Regina Hutton, were identical rowns in pastel shades of yellow, pink, blue and green.

Each wore a lace wide-brimmed hat to match her dress and held hand bouquets of pink, yellow and orchid carnations and blue-tipped pom poms with baby's breath.

Gregory Breyer, a niece of the groom, served as flower girl. She wore a long orchid frock similar to those of the bridesmaids and carried an organza lace basket filled with rose petals, and also wore a matching picture hat.

Stephanotis tied with white satin bows marked the pews.

Attending the groom was John Hutton as best man, Tom Nesbit, Mark McKinney, the groom's brother, Tom Tritschuh and Gary Wigger, the groom's brother-in-law, as groomsmen.

Serving as ushers were Dave Lauer, Wayne Gum and Mark Richardson, a cousin of the bride.

A 6:30 p.m. reception for guests was held at the Moose Hall, 19th and Adams streets. Miss Mary Ellen Breyer of Charleston, a cousin of the bride, presided over the guest book.

Members of the wedding party and their families attended a rehearsal dinner given at the Heritage House in St. Louis on the evening preceding the wedding.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Favier selected a pale blue crepe floor-length gown fashioned with a lace overlay bodice and long sleeves.

The groom's mother, Mrs. McKinney, was attired in a peach color sleeveless dress with an oriental design created with blue, green and yellow accents.

Both mothers wore corsages of white roses and baby's breath.

The newly-married couple are both graduates of Granite City High School. The bride completed her second year at Belleville Area College in the field of nursing and plans to continue studying for a degree in nursing. She worked this summer at St. Mary's Hospital, East St. Louis.

Her husband is employed at Granite City Steel.

They are now residing in Belleville following a wedding trip to the Missouri Ozarks.

Out-of-town guests included Mr. and Mrs. Claude Owings of Centralia, Mo., grandparents of the groom, Mrs. Dixie Schrader of Mexico, Mo., a grandmother of the groom, Dr. and Mrs. James Breyer of Cookville, Tenn., a cousin of the bride and their children Todd, Lisa and Gregory.

AIRMAN AND MRS. JOHNE E. ARBOGAST. They were married in an evening ceremony solemnized at St. Peter Evangelical United Church of Christ. The bride is the former Miss Sharon Elaine Stout, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dean Harrell, 4821 Warnock Ave.

Arbogast-Stout wedding at St. Peter's Church

The wedding of Miss Sharon Elaine Stout and Airman John Edward Arbogast was solemnized on Aug. 15 in a candlelight setting at St. Peter Evangelical United Church of Christ.

A double-ring ceremony was performed at 7 o'clock in the evening by the Rev. Robert Kettelhut before an altar banked with bouquets of carnations in aqua, apricot, and mauve hues.

Wedding music played during the ceremony by the church organist included "Song of Ruth," "Trumpet in D Major," "Theme from Bach" and "The Lord's Prayer."

The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dean Harrell, 4821 Warnock St. Parents of the groom are Mr. and Mrs. John W. Arbogast, Rural Route One, Trenton, Ill., formerly of Granite City.

Burning tapers in branched candelabra at the pews illuminated the white carpeted aisle as the bride was escorted to the altar by her father.

She wore a full-length bridal gown fashioned of chiffon over taffeta, featuring a molded bodice with a square neckline and enhanced with rows of Chantilly lace and tiny pleats.

The decorative lace trim and pleats formed the long skirt and edged the Cardinal-style sleeves.

A triple-tiered mantilla veil of a matching lace headpiece.

Maid of honor Miss JoAnn Stout, a sister of the bride and bridesmaids, Miss Laura

Joseph-Jansen engagement

The engagement of Miss Terri Jansen and Brad Joseph, a son of Mr. and Mrs. Forrest Joseph, 2677 Erb Road, St. Louis, is being announced by the bride elect's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Al Jansen, 2436 Terminal Ave.

A 1973 graduate of Granite City High School, Miss Jansen is employed at General American Life Insurance Co. in St. Louis.

Her fiancé is a 1971 graduate of Mehlville High School, St. Louis. He served in the U. S. Navy for four years, receiving his discharge in April this year.

The groom-elect will begin school this fall at Meramec Junior College.

Plans are being completed for a February wedding by the betrothed couple.

The groom selected Randy Anderson as his best man Tim Venne and Kirk Arbogast, another brother of the groom, were groomsmen.

Escorting the guests to their seats were George Becker, a brother-in-law of the groom, Mike Mullenix, the groom's cousin, and Rusty Harrell, a brother of the bride.

Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Arbogast, grandparents of the groom, hosted a rehearsal dinner in their home, 2663 Lincoln Ave.

Guests were received by the newly married couple at a reception held at the Moose Lodge.

After a wedding trip to Tan-Tar-A Resort in Missouri, they will reside in Florida where the groom is stationed at Fort McDi.

The bride is a 1975 graduate of Granite City High School North and her husband was graduated from South High School in 1972. He attended Lewis and Clark Community College for a year. He has been stationed at Fort Lowry in Colorado where he was involved in missile training.

TO MARRY. Miss Terri Jansen and Brad Joseph whose engagement and plans for a February wedding are being announced by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Al Jansen, 2436 Terminal Ave.

Madison, Venice and most parochial schools will open Monday; St. Elizabeth, GC schools Tuesday

Orientation sessions for new students were held today at Grigsby Junior High School and Granite City High School and in preparation for the opening day of school next week. No orientation sessions are planned this year at Frather or Coolidge Junior High schools. Actual school term openings are set for Monday and Tuesday in the Quad-Cities.

Venice High School students attending for the first time this fall will attend an orientation session Monday from 9 to 11:30 a.m. There will be no orientation period for younger Venice pupils.

In Madison, an orientation session for new students will be held during the first week of school but the time has not been set. Madison Junior High School will have no session.

Registration of new students who will attend Granite City elementary schools this fall was to be held from 1 to 3 p.m. at the schools they will attend.

Granite City schools will open Tuesday with a half-day of classes. Full-day classes will begin in Granite City on Wednesday, Aug. 27, Granite City elementary starting times will be 8:45 a.m., it was emphasized this week.

New students who will attend Granite City Junior High schools for the first time this fall registered this week and will continue next week at the school they will attend.

Both Granite City high schools have completed registration, but school officials said a "roundup" registration will be held later for those who missed the earlier registration period.

In Madison, new students are registering in the elementary, junior high and high schools that they will attend at any time during regular school office hours. Supt. John Patchett said no special registration periods are scheduled.

Registrations also are being accepted at Venice grade school during office hours. School Supt. Robert Vickers said high school registration has been completed in Venice, but additional registrations will be accepted on the opening day of school.

All faculty members of Granite City schools will attend an all-day workshop at Granite City High School North on Monday, Aug. 25. The workshop will begin at 8 a.m. and continue until 3:30 p.m.

Granite City schools will open Tuesday, Aug. 26, for a half-day session. The half-day program will begin at 8:45 a.m. and dismiss at noon at all elementary schools.

Junior high school classes will convene at 8 a.m. at Coolidge and 8:30 a.m. at Frather and Grigsby, with dismissal at 12:30 p.m. at those three schools.

The two Granite City high schools will convene classes Aug. 26 at 8 a.m. and dismiss at 3 p.m.

Regular hours at Granite City schools during full-day sessions beginning Wednesday, Aug. 27, will be from 8:45 a.m. to 3 p.m. at all elementary schools; 8 a.m. to 3:15 p.m. at Coolidge, 8:30 a.m. to 3:45 p.m. at Frather and Grigsby, and 8 a.m. to 3:30 p.m. at both high schools.

At Madison schools, a half-day session on Monday, Aug. 25, will include two sessions for kindergarten pupils from 9 a.m. until 10 a.m. for one group and from 10 a.m. until 11 a.m. for another.

Elementary pupils will attend classes from 8:45 a.m. until 11:30 a.m.

At the Junior High, eighth grade pupils will attend from 7:30 a.m. until 9 a.m., while seventh grade pupils will attend from 9:15 a.m. until 10:45 a.m. The half-day session for Madison High School students will be from 8:30 a.m. to 11:30 a.m.

Full-day Madison sessions beginning Tuesday, Aug. 26, will include two kindergarten classes, one from 9 a.m. until 11:30 a.m. and one from 12:40 p.m. to 3:10 p.m.

Full-day classes for elementary pupils will be from 8:45 a.m. until 3:15 p.m. Eighth grade students in the Junior High will attend in a split shift from 7:30 a.m. until 11:30 a.m., while seventh grade students will attend from noon until 4 p.m. daily.

All MHS classes will begin at 8:30 a.m. and dismiss at 3 p.m. Half-day sessions at Venice schools on Monday, Aug. 25, will begin at 9 a.m. and continue until 12:10 p.m. for junior high school and high school students.

Pupils in kindergarten to third grade classes will attend from 8:35 a.m. until 11:30 a.m., and pupils of the fourth, fifth and sixth grades will attend from 8:30 a.m. until 11:30 a.m. in Venice.

Full-day sessions will begin Tuesday, Aug. 26, at Venice schools, with kindergarten to sixth-grade pupils in classes beginning at 8:30 a.m. Pupils in the kindergarten to third-grade classes will dismiss at 2:45 p.m., and those in the fourth, fifth and sixth grades dismiss at 3:35 p.m.

High school and junior high level classes in Venice will last from 8 a.m. until 3:05 p.m. daily.

The school lunch program will be resumed in all of the public schools with the beginning of full-time classes.

St. Elizabeth School will hold its first day Tuesday, Aug. 26, with pupils attending from 9 a.m. until noon.

That half-day schedule will prevail for the remainder of the week, with full-time classes beginning on Sept. 2, the day after Labor Day.

The other local parochial schools will begin their fall terms on Monday, Aug. 25, with the following schedules:

St. Margaret Mary, first day from 8:45 to 10 a.m.; remainder of week from 8:45 to 11:30 a.m. Full-day classes will begin Sept. 2 from 8:45 a.m. to 3 p.m. daily.

Sacred Heart, first day from 8:45 to 10:30 a.m.; remainder of week from 8:45 a.m. to noon. Full-day classes beginning Sept. 2 from 8:45 a.m. to 3 p.m. daily.

St. Mary-St. Mark, first week of classes begin with 8 a.m. Mass; dismissal time 12 noon. Full-day classes beginning Sept. 2 from 8:30 a.m. to 3:10 p.m.

Grades five and eight will be held at St. Mark's School, Venice, and all other grade levels will be conducted at St. Mary's School, Madison—first, second, third, fourth, sixth and seventh.

St. Joseph, first day from 8:30 to 10 a.m.; remainder of week from 8:30 a.m. to noon. Full-day classes begin Sept. 2 from 8:30 a.m. to 2:30 p.m. daily.

All of the parochial schools will initiate lunch programs on Sept. 2 with the exception of St. Joseph, which has no lunch program within the building.

3 hurt near Arlington

A two-car accident on State Aid Route 35 at Arlington Heights Road during the weekend resulted in injury to the driver of one vehicle, William Forsee, 17, of 3688 Lake Drive, Pontoon Beach, and to two passengers in the second auto, driven by Michael Stephens, 263 Holiday Park—Patricia York, 18, of 1236 Madison Ave., and Robert E. Fischer, 17, of 2430 Lincoln Ave.

Stephens was cited by a Madison County sheriff deputy for improper lane usage, and Forsee was cited for an invalid driver's license (after curfew).

Treated and released at St. Elizabeth Hospital were Forsee with contusions to his left chest area and Fischer with pains to the left rib area.

WASHINGTON BURGLARY
A checking account book and savings account book, a safety deposit box key, another key, a radio and some blouses were stolen during a burglary at the home of Paul Lampe, 2231 Washington Ave., which was reported at 8:45 p.m. Monday. Entry was gained by opening a cellar door to the basement.

3 suspects in burglary flee

Three young men thought to have burglarized Suburban Tire Co., 2800 Nameoki Road, Monday were chased from the store into Kirkpatrick Homes but escaped capture.

A witness said he was driving past the store while it was closed and saw one young man come out the front door.

The witness said he yelled at the man, who ran to the north side of the building. The witness chased the youth and a second youth who was sitting on the north side of the store. A third youth nearby joined them.

The witness then got out of his car and followed the three on foot into the Kirkpatrick Homes area but was unable to catch them.

He found a television set and a tape player on the ground outside the tire store and brought them to the police station.

Officers said some money had been taken from the store's cash drawer.

Two injured

A two-car accident on I-55 one mile north of Route 140 at 3:50 p.m. Friday resulted in injury to two persons who were admitted to St. Elizabeth Hospital.

Autos driven by Michael Behl, 19, of Rochester, Ill., and Lucian S. Rosa, 31, of Kenosha, Wis., were involved in the collision. Reports said the Rosa auto had a steering failure and crossed the median, striking the southbound Behl car.

Rosa suffered abrasions to the right side of his body and right elbow and a passenger in the Behl car, Miss Deborah Cox, 17, of Springfield, sustained abrasions and contusions to the right side of her face and right leg. Both were admitted. Behl was examined and released.

'To know us is to love us' but many are misinformed

"The people are what makes Granite City great. Appreciate your city," a sign on St. Elizabeth Hospital fence surrounding a construction-remodeling area proclaims.

The thought accurately reflects what most local residents feel about their community. On balance, weighing the good against the bad, this is a great place in which to live, work, shop and play.

The subject is brought to mind by a Washington Star news series profiling the St. Louis metropolitan area.

The report attempted to compare St. Louis with Washington for livability and applauded the Midwestern metropolis for its busy pace, relatively low living costs, quick and easy commuting, recreation facilities, bright future for professionals and other young people, and strong sense of neighborhood identity.

We agree with many of the points and feel that Quad-Cities have the "best of both worlds" easy access to the many outstanding St. Louis attractions, combined with an opportunity to reside in a friendly, safe area with highly-regarded schools and diverse occupational and leisure opportunities.

Strong case for quick replacement of old locks, dam

The Press-Record has editorially encouraged replacement of the aging, inadequate Alton area locks and dam. A similar stand is taken in this Post-Dispatch comment:

The crux of the proposed new Alton lock and dam issue is whether the project invites a restructuring of the upper Mississippi River with a 12-foot channel. The question must be resolved before work can proceed. There is no serious case against the need for a new lock and dam; the present dam and locks, completed 37 years ago, face slowly increasing structural difficulties and will require replacement.

Beyond that, these locks are too small for their critical traffic position below the juncture of the Illinois with the Mississippi; they reached their capacity in 1971.

But there is no case for using new and bigger locks as a first step toward increasing the channel depth upstream on two rivers from nine to 12 feet.

As environmentalists charge, the deeper channel would create dredge spoil that, when dumped, would ruin wildlife areas and recreational facilities along the rivers.

The environmentalists, joined by 21 railroads, have won an injunction from U. S. District Judge Charles B. Richey based partly on the ground that the Corps of Engineers lacks legislative authority to start any such vast project.

The Corps itself denies it intends a 12-foot channel; indeed, a 1972 Corps report

Unfortunately, such an approving attitude apparently is not reciprocated. The Washington reporter voices surprise that the Mississippi River continues to be a wide barrier separating Missouri and Illinois residents. Bi-state cooperation is "tenuous" as Missourians "often refer to their neighbors in Illinois in terms of pained embarrassment or lofty, bemused contempt," he wrote.

It is not the first time Quad-Cities have found that they are viewed from the west through dim glasses that see not the reality but the illusion of a "vast wasteland." But the latest confirmation still hurts.

Quad-Cities don't like to be the cause or target of embarrassment, contempt or ridicule and they certainly haven't earned this kind of attitude. We suspect that much of it involves "fear of the unknown." St. Louis media, for example, continue to report "east side" or "east" happenings that tend to tar the entire region, instead of taking the trouble to identify the many specific, widely-separated municipalities.

In summary, "To know us is to love us." We wish somebody could deliver a way in which Missourians could get to know us as we are, not as they assume we are.

recommended against further study of the project at this time.

The Corps also says that the increased depth of the proposed lock is not such a basic as a basis for a deeper channel but as a hydraulic necessity to permit smoother locking with less turbulence. Opponents reply that the Engineers have studied the deeper channel and have said the new locks would accommodate it.

There should be a way out of this situation. On Sept. 10 a public hearing will be held on the Corps's final environmental impact statement. The public. However, they are limited to 40 days of testimony — plus 10 more days at Train's sole discretion.

With 25 years of accumulated scientific research data, it is obvious the hearings will have to be skimpy and sketchy.

This is why the help of every corn grower and farmer, and every interested organization, is needed. Telegrams and letters should be sent to individual congressmen and senators at once.

First it was DDT. Then aldrin and dieldrin. Now chlordane and heptachlor are under fire. Already, Train has singled out his next target. Clearly, the strategy of advocacy groups, fanatics and Train is to pick off these vital working tools of agriculture, one by one, stripping the farmer of all in freedom of choice in how he runs his business.

Even if you do not use chlordane and heptachlor, still have a stake in saving these two highly effective insecticides, because the insecticide you do use may very well be next.

Last spring, it's estimated that over 1,500,000 acres of corn were damaged or destroyed by cutworms, wireworms and armyworms, due to a shortage of chlordane and heptachlor in some areas. This shortage was largely caused by the previous cancellation of aldrin and dieldrin.

Next spring, will no chlordane and heptachlor at all, the number of acres damaged or destroyed could run into many millions. This would be disastrous to thousands of corn growers, and eventually result in higher food costs for consumers.

We're not fighting just because we manufacture chlordane and heptachlor.

'LOOK WHO'S AT THE FRONT OF THE LINE AGAIN!' Says farms being unfairly restricted

To the Editor:

Unless corn growers, farmers and farm leaders act quickly, they may soon lose two more of their important weapons for fighting destructive and costly corn insects.

If the action taken recently by Russell Train of the U. S. Environmental Protection Agency in his "notice of intent to suspend" is upheld, sales of chlordane and heptachlor for crop use could be cut off completely in the next two to three months. This could wreak havoc with next spring's corn crop.

The need for concerted action is urgent, because Train has resorted to the most expeditious measures possible. With this fast-handed approach, it is evident he hopes to keep resistance by farmers and consumers at a minimum.

Filing for public hearings immediately after Train's announcement, we are doing all in our power to help farmers save chlordane and heptachlor. The hearings, which started Monday, will help bring the facts before the public. However, they are limited to 40 days of testimony — plus 10 more days at Train's sole discretion.

Humane care of dogs, cats is urged

To the Editor:

There are some people who believe that poor people have no business owning a dog or cat because they cannot afford approved fencing or sterilization fees.

It is ironic that those people who proclaim these rigid beliefs are usually moderately affluent, and yet they refuse to share their resources with their own pets by having them sterilized and humanely confined.

These moderately affluent people are the ones who can afford automobiles and gasoline in which to haul their excess puppies and kittens as well as business owning a dog or cat because they cannot afford approved fencing or sterilization fees.

Shrine circus had its best year here

To the Editor:

It would be a difficult task to say as many "thank you's" as you deserve, but let me say it is one big one for the Nobility of Ainaad Temple.

The time and space, plus all the photographs you gave to help tell the people of the Tri-City area about our circus and the philanthropy of the Shrine could never be measured in inches or heartbeats. This was our best year in the Tri-City area, and we know it was because you made it so with your wonderful coverage. Our Nobility in the area flooded us with papers to show what an effective job you were doing and we could tell by the looks on the faces of our viewers that they anticipated the great show they received.

You have always done a fine job in telling the story, but again we want to tell you how wonderful it was this year.

One thing more...when you hear of a crippled child that can use our help...let us know, please.

Letter from Washington

by Senator Charles H. Percy

Make sure grain sales benefit the American economy

Midwest crops are the center of attention as economists weigh the impact of increased Soviet demands for grain against projected bumper crops in the United States. Memories of the 1972 Russian grain deal, which caused domestic food prices to skyrocket, have made economists, farmers, workers and consumers cautious about another large grain sale to the Soviet Union. Dockworkers, for example, have pledged not to load grain bound for Russia if the sale causes increases in domestic food prices. The AFL-CIO says it will back the dockworkers in their resistance to the Russian grain sales if the sales mean higher prices for American consumers.

As the ranking member of the Senate Permanent Investigations Subcommittee I conducted hearings recently to explore the impact of the grain sales to Russia. Estimates of the expected Russian purchases vary, but one conclusion emerged from the hearings: we must monitor the Russian harvest and our own crop yields to avoid shortages at home that could raise food prices.

The Agriculture Department estimates that Russia will need at least 20 million tons of imported grain this year to offset shortages. If bad weather continues to destroy crops, the Russians may need as much as 25 million tons. All but 10 million tons of this amount would come from the United States.

So far this year, the Soviet Union has arranged to buy 4.5 million tons of corn and 1.1 million tons of wheat and 1.1 million tons of barley from the United States. But the Agriculture Department has asked export companies to notify the Department before negotiating additional grain sales.

Careful review of expected crop yields and anticipated exports will help assure that we avoid the mistakes of the 1972 grain deal between the U.S. and Russia. By overselling to the Soviet Union, we severely depleted our own supplies. This shortage caused a dramatic rise in the costs of many food products. Most prices soared, consumers boycotted a meat boycott and farmers killed cattle they could not afford to feed. This poorly managed export deal brought hardship instead of benefits to American consumers and farmers.

We must be especially careful this year to assure that U.S. grain sales to Russia are beneficial to our economy. We are just beginning to recover from a period of severe recession and soaring inflation. Excessive grain sales abroad could inflate food prices and, in turn, have a recessionary impact on the economy.

A healthy and growing export market, however, is essential to our economic recovery. It can improve our balance of payments position and reduce unemployment. Many industries are highly dependent on a steady export market to sustain their business. The railroads, for example, are counting on exports to help them recover from the slump in freight traffic. (The Chicago and North Western Railway reported a 16 percent drop in grain shipments during the first three months of the year, compared to the same period in 1974.)

In Illinois we have good reason to be optimistic about the expected bumper crop and a healthy export market. Illinois farmers expect record crops this year. Our state is the nation's leading exporter of soybeans and barley and ranks second only to Iowa in the export of corn. If we experience good weather for the remainder of the growing season, and if exports grow without causing inflation at home, then farmers can expect good profits as well as excellent crop yields.

The next few weeks will be the most crucial growing period for corn and wheat. By mid-August the Agriculture Department will have a better estimate of U.S. crop yields and Russian grain needs. Until then, farmers, commodity speculators and export dealers should maintain a wait-and-see position.

ELECTION CHANGES

By

LESTER W. BRANN, JR.
President
Illinois State
Chamber of Commerce

Like the candidates who win them, elections and the laws that govern them change. It started out to be a big spring for such changes in the state legislature. Congressional reapportionment, voter re-registration, election consolidation, a primary date change, prohibition of crossover voting—these were some of the few of the issues that got statewide publicity.

Yet only one of these measures—to move the primary election to the first Tuesday in May—managed to pass both houses. If signed by Governor Walker, it means that potential candidates will no longer be required to file for offices they can't occupy until almost a year later. As for the other bills, they either failed or were left in legislative limbo until the fall session.

Some changes in the election code passed, however, that can affect a lot of voters. But news of these was lost in the rush to report on bigger statewide happenings. Through H.1030, on persons who are temporarily outside the U.S. on business can register to vote by mailing an application to the county clerk of their Illinois residence.

Applications for absentee ballots would be permitted up to 1 day before an election through H. 145, rather than the present 3-day limit. Campaign reform legislation of last session received some clarification this spring. Local political committees would no longer need a receipted bill for every expenditure over $20 if the Governor approves S. 854. Proof of payment would be sufficient.

Another bill that passed, S. 208, allows political committees that act in both state and local capacities to file their required statements of organization, contributions and expenses only with the State Board of Election, with copies of such documents to go to the various county clerks where the committees operate.

These are just a few of the more than 40 election changes sent to the Governor. Fewer than one-fourth have been signed. But if they are, voters need to know about them because as election laws change, voting rights will be affected.

Calls consumer bureaucracy plan dangerously dictatorial

By SAM J. ERVIN JR.
(Retired U. S. Senator from North Carolina)

The federal bureaucracy has become like the third curse of Moses—a suffocating plague of frogs brought forth from out of where they belong into the villages and the very houses of the people.

My concerns about the creeping intrusion are well illustrated by the proposed Consumer Protection Act of 1975 which are being considered now by one of the subcommittees of the House Government Operations Committee.

These proposals would add yet another self-willed federal agency to the burgeoning mass that now exists.

A review of the current bills, H. R. 7575 and S. 200, shows both bills contain all the new agency powers that the consumer protection movement has been demanding. And, sadly, there are even new dangers in these 1975 versions.

If one of these bills should be passed by Congress, it will

Mitchell Festival Sept. 5-7

Popular musical entertainer Nick Nixon, the Waterloo German Band and bluegrass musician Dud Crouch will be among the many types of entertainment to be offered at this year's Mitchell Athletic Association Fall Festival along East Chain of Rocks Road between Routes 209 and 111 in Mitchell.

This year's festival, the 16th annual event, will be held Friday, Saturday and Sunday, Sept. 5, 6 and 7. In addition to the live entertainment, rides, games and a wide variety of food will be offered.

Groups wishing to have booths at the carnival are being requested to call 931-2154 for information.

Funds raised by the Mitchell Athletic Association during the festival will be used to support the association's athletic teams, sports program and building fund.

The association supports American Legion Post 426's baseball team, 14 other baseball squads from atom through junior divisions, 16 girls' softball squads, seven boys' soccer squads, three girls' soccer units, and 16 boys' basketball teams for children from third grade through high school age.

The festival will open at 6 p.m. Friday, Sept. 5, with dancing that night to the music of the Joey James Band.

Saturday, Sept. 6, rides, booths and activities will begin at noon and continue into the early morning hours Sunday. Nick Nixon will perform at 8 p.m. Saturday and 12:30 a.m. Sunday with country and western music. Nixon returns at the request of many persons who enjoyed his concert at last year's Mitchell Fall Festival.

Dud Crouch also will perform blue grass music Saturday with shows at 3 p.m. and 5 p.m.

A ceremony to present trophies to winning baseball teams will be held at 1 p.m. Sunday, Sept. 7 followed at 2 p.m. by the Waterloo German Band in full costume.

Dud Crouch also will perform Sunday evening at 6 p.m. and Nick Nixon will give his final two performances Sunday at 8 p.m. and midnight.

Harry Breckner, president of the Mitchell Athletic Association, and Al Hallett, treasurer, noted that all previous Fall Festivals have drawn large crowds "and everyone seemed to enjoy himself," and added, "We are confident everyone will, again, find the festival an enjoyable experience and we urge everyone to come and have a good time."

Community chorus will meet at BAC

The Belleville Area College Community Chorus will begin rehearsals for its second season Aug. 26.

Rehearsals are held on Tuesday evenings, from 7 to 9:30, in Room 2340 at the main campus, 2500 Carlyle Road.

The organization combines students and community members to perform masterworks of choral literature. While students may register and receive college credit, townspeople also may participate without charge. All singers, however, purchase their own scores.

Performances planned for this season include a presentation of Mendelssohn's famous oratorio, "Elijah," on Nov. 15. The chorus will participate in a Christmas concert, performing several motets for double chorus.

A program of music about love will be given on St. Valentine's Day, and later in the spring a bicentennial concert will be presented.

Under the direction of founder-conductor A. Dennis Sparger, the BAC Community Chorus has received widespread praise. Last year's performances of Handel's "Messiah" and Haydn's "Creation" attracted special notice.

While singers are not auditioned for the Community Chorus, it is expected that members have had previous choral experience. New and prospective members may attend, Sparger said.

BICENTENNIAL QUIZ

How's your American history? Here's a test to put you in tune with the Bicentennial.

(A) Longfellow was wrong when he said in his famous poem that Paul Revere "came to the bridge in Concord town." Revere never reached Concord. What happened?

(B) One British member of Parliament who spoke out in defense of American liberties was so popular in the Colonies that South Carolina voted 1,500 pounds sterling to pay his debts. Who was he?

(C) Faneuil Hall, Boston, is known as the "Cradle of Liberty" because of the many patriotic meetings held there early in the Revolution. For whom was it named?

(D) How much was the tea tax levied by the British Parliament?

(E) Which Colony became known as the Old Line State? (A) After winning Lexington, Revere was on his way to Concord when the British caught him. The word was carried to Concord by a messenger he had met on the way — the unsung Dr. Samuel Prescott.

(B) John Wilkes, who also was lord mayor of London in 1774. Through invective and satire, he became a symbol of opposition to tyranny.

(C) Peter Faneuil, Boston merchant and smuggler who made a fortune out of the slave trade. On the safe arrival of one of his slave ships he went to church to thank God for making him the instrument "by which so many heathen souls were brought to salvation." His donation to the city of the hall gave rise to the saying "the Cradle of Liberty rocks on the bones of the Middle Passage."

(D) Three pence per pound. Tea was very popular in the Colonies at the time.

(E) Maryland, so-called because of the high quality of its regular "troops of the line" in the Revolution.

Quad-City couples wed in candlelight settings

Patricia Hunsinger weds Michael Raymond Salmo

Miss Patricia Marie Hunsinger and Michael Raymond Salmo exchanged vows at 6 p.m. on Aug. 2 in an impressive ceremony at Niedringhaus United Methodist Church.

The double-ring service was performed by the Rev. Roy Baugh and Father William Longest.

Parents of the bride, Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. Hunsinger, reside at 5 Del Rio Ave. The groom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Salmo of Herrin, Ill.

Burning tapers, entwined with garlands of small blue-tipped pom poms and blue satin ribbon, illuminated the white-carpeted aisle and a bouquet of blue mums and carnations, flanked by candelabra decorated the altar.

A program of wedding music was provided by Jack Jenkins at the organ and Paul Mabrey, vocalist. The selections included "The Wedding Prayer," "Ave Maria" and "The Lord's Prayer."

Escorted to the altar and given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of ivory satin peau fashioned in an empire silhouette.

Re-embroidered Alencon lace floral motifs, etched with pearls, formed a high neckline and traced the sheer yoke of the fitted bodice.

The lace appliques were repeated on the long-tapered sleeves and on both sides of the long skirt and the hemline which was also bordered with scalloped lace.

A profile of lace was secured to a long mantilla veil edged with scalloped lace and fell into a full-sweep train. She carried a bouquet of white Sweetheart roses, blue tipped pom poms, stephanotis and baby's breath.

Maid of honor Miss Danita

Schilling, and the bridesmaids, Miss Susan Hunsinger, a sister of the bride, Miss Patricia Salmo, the groom's sister, and Miss Carol Gruenwald, were dressed alike in blue jersey full-length gowns.

Their sleeveless dresses were designed in an empire style and worn with long sleeved, short jackets which tied in the front.

Mr. Salmo chose Luis Biazon as his best man. The corps of groomsmen and ushers included John Calcaterra, Ralph Kaufman, Gary Thornton, Anthony Cattaneo, Steven Cattaneo and Kim Hawkins.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Hunsinger selected a formal-length gown of hot pink jersey enhanced with jewels on the empire bodice, and complemented with a short jacket also trimmed with a jewel design, and gold accessories.

The groom's mother, Mrs. Salmo, was attired in a long pastel green gown accented with an ornamental neckline. Her accessories were in a silver shade and both mothers wore orchid corsages.

A dinner reception was held at the Croatian Home following the ceremony and the rehearsal dinner was hosted at Charlie's Restaurant.

A Granite City High School graduate, the bride graduated in May from Deaconess Hospital School of Nursing.

The groom graduated from Herrin High School and the University of Illinois, cum laude, where he received a bachelor's degree in art. He is now employed by the Cerro Gordo School System as an art instructor and assistant football coach.

Following a honeymoon trip the newlyweds are now residing in Decatur, Ill.

SUMMER BRIDE. Mrs. Joseph Edward Franko, the former Miss Jane Lee Parker, who was married at St. Elizabeth Roman Catholic Church. She is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Keith D. Parker, 1509 Garfield Ave.

Paula Barnhart marries John Micheal Prusakki

Miss Paula Barnhart, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richard C. Barnhart, 1628 Sixth St., Madison, became the bride of John Micheal Prusakki, son of Mrs. Flora Prusakki, 1913 Fourth St., on Aug. 2 at one o'clock in the afternoon at Concordia Lutheran Church.

Altar bouquets of blue and white carnations centered between branched candelabra holding lighted tapers provided the setting for the double-ring ceremony performed by the Rev. Arvin Twistemeyer.

Nuptial selections were sung by Laura Fechte who was accompanied by June Barton at the organ.

The former Miss Barnhart was gowning in a full-length ivory chiffon dress featuring a Chantilly lace bodice and long sleeves.

Her slightly full skirt fell gracefully into a chapel train. She wore an ivory picture hat accented with a cluster of blue flowers and streamers at the back and carried a bouquet of blue and white carnations interspersed with white roses.

Miss Christine Gorkin served as honor attendant. She chose a formal-length blue crepe gown designed with long fitted sleeves set into a molded bodice accented with an ivory lace collar.

She wore a wide-brimmed hat to match her attire and held a white basket filled with blue and white blossoms.

Ronald Stern attended the groom as best man and Mike Barnhart and Bob Privette seated the guests.

A reception for guests was held in the home of the bride's parents following the ceremony.

The newly married Mr. and Mrs. Prusakki took a wedding trip to Branson, Mo., and are now residing in Madison.

Both graduated from Madison High School. The groom is employed at Granite City Steel.

Franko-Parker nuptials at St. Elizabeth Church

St. Elizabeth Roman Catholic Church was the scene of the wedding on Aug. 8 of Miss Jane Lee Parker, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Keith D. Parker, 1509 Garfield Ave., and Joseph Edward Franko, a son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Franko Sr., Rural Route Two, Granite City.

Burning tapers in branched candelabra, festooned with sprigs of greenery, illuminated the white-carpeted aisle and tall brass urns holding floral arrangements in rainbow colors adorned the altar for the double-ring ceremony performed at 7:30 in the evening by the Rt. Rev. Msgr. Lawrence Mattingly.

Vocalist Mrs. Gary Schmitt was accompanied by Jack Jenkins at the organ. Nuptial selections included "Two Shall Be As One," "Pani Angelicus," "Ave Maria," "Follow Me" and "The Lord's Prayer."

Escorted to the altar by her father, the former Miss Parker wore an ivory silkened organza gown delicately appliqued with Alencon lace re-embroidered with tiny pearls.

The sheer yoke of lace was fashioned with the duchesse neckline of lace and pearls. Double tiers of organza fell over the shoulders forming short sleeves.

Her circular skirt and built-in train, which fell gracefully from a raised waistline, was accented with beaded lace motifs.

She wore a picture hat of ivory organza and lace to complement her gown, with a short ivory veil of silk illusion attached.

The bridal bouquet was a cascade of orchids, yellow roses, stephanotis, baby's breath and trailing ivy.

Matron of honor Mrs. Sharon Parker, a sister-in-law of the bride and bridesmaids, Mrs. Pat Jacobs, the groom's sister, Mrs. Ann Rollins, Mrs. Donna Hagauer and Mrs. Donna Moore, were dressed alike in lime green sheer polyester gowns.

Their dresses were designed with fitted bodices, scoop necklines and wide double-flared collars. The skirts were softly gathered and featured deep flounces at the hemlines.

Each attendant held a colonial bouquet in rainbow colors encircled with Chantilly lace.

Elizabeth Ann Parker, a niece of the bride and Marty Morgan served as flower girls and Jimmy Christopher Parker, the bride's nephew was the ringbearer.

Both flower girls wore yellow dotted swiss frocks and carried white baskets filled with multi-colored blossoms and tied with yellow satin streamers.

The groom chose his brother-in-law Larry Jacobs as best man. James Dale Parker, a brother of the bride, John Ireland, Kevin Franko, John Koer served as groomsmen.

Escorting the guests to their seats were Thomas R. Hewlett, a brother-in-law of the bride, and Robert Meyers, the bride's cousin.

Guests were greeted by the newly married Mr. and Mrs. Franko at a reception held at Croatian Home in Madison, (following the service, Miss Patty Bickhaus attended the guest book.)

A rehearsal dinner was hosted by the groom's parents, at Charlie's Restaurant.

The bride and groom are now at home at the Pontoon Plaza Apartments.

A graduate of Granite City High School South, the bride also received a B.S. degree in elementary education at Southern Illinois University, Edwardsville.

The groom graduated from South High School and now is employed as manager of Kentucky Fried Chicken in Bridgeton, Mo.

Gray-Puryear nuptials

Mr. and Mrs. Roger Clinton Gray, who were married on June 21 at the Hopewell Missionary Baptist Church in Smithland, Ky., are now at home in Eddyville, Ky.

Mrs. Gray is the former Miss Sharon Elaine Puryear, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Lee Puryear of Tiline, Ky., formerly of Granite City.

She also is the granddaughter of Mrs. Cens Puryear of Smithland, formerly of this area, and a niece of Van Puryear, 2431 Pine St., Granite City.

The groom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Clint Gray of Eddyville.

Officiating at the 7:30 p.m. ceremony was the Rev. Robert Engler.

Given in marriage by her parents, the bride wore a long gown of imported angel skin accented with peau de ange lace etched with peau de ange lace.

Attendants included Miss Debbie Dukes, Miss Diane Paris and Miss Maria Smith. Regina Puryear, a sister of the bride, served as the ringbearer, and Lori and Lisa Thompson, nieces of the groom were flower girls.

Kyle Dunn was best man. Groomsmen and ushers included Robbie Kennedy, Frankie Patton, Larry Travis and Dennis Patton.

On Aug. 21, 1921, "One Widow and 11 Maids" were sent from London to Virginia to be sold for 120 pounds of tobacco each to bachelors, desirous of wives.

Mollie VanBuskirk and Patrick Higgins are wed

The Rev. C. Dale Edwards officiated at a double-ring ceremony at 7 p.m. on July 26 at the First Assembly of God Church, uniting in marriage Miss Mollie VanBuskirk and Patrick Higgins.

Candlelight illuminated the sanctuary and bouquets of late summer blossoms adorned the altar.

Mrs. C. Dale Edwards presided at the organ for the New Life Singers as they sang "Here, There and Everywhere," "Colour My World," "Follow Me" and "The Lord's Prayer."

The bride is a daughter of Mrs. Shirley VanBuskirk, 314 Wilson Park Lane, and the late Joe VanBuskirk. Parents of the groom are Mrs. Elvis Byrd, 2736 Michigan Ave., and Edmund Higgins of Madison.

For her wedding, the bride selected a white princess-style gown created with a lace overblouse featuring a high neckline and short cape sleeves. Her full skirt and chapel-length train was bordered in a double tier of Venice lace and appliqued flowers.

She wore a lace caplet to secure a shoulder-length veil of bridal illusion and carried a colonial bouquet of carnations, pom poms, baby's breath and trailing ivy.

Maid of honor was Miss Nancy Prusak and bridesmaids included Mrs. Nelda Sanders and Miss Cindy Higgins, a sister of the groom.

Red grosgrain ribbons encircled the fitted waistlines and accented the long skirts, terminated with a ruffled flounce.

Mrs. VanBuskirk was attired in a powder blue crepe shirtwaist gown with matching accessories and the groom's mother appeared in a long eggshell color knit empire gown made with angel sleeves and complemented with coral accessories.

Attending the groom as best man was his brother, Mike Higgins. Joe VanBuskirk, a brother of the bride and Gary Sanders served as groomsmen.

Escorting the guests to their seats was Lucas VanBuskirk, the bride's brother and Danny Tyler.

The newly married Mr. and Mrs. Higgins are residing here after a wedding trip to the Ozarks.

A 1968 graduate of Granite City High School, the former Miss VanBuskirk is employed as a secretary for a local law firm. Her husband is employed at Granite City Steel and was graduated in 1969 from South High School.

Home from European tour

The Rev. Wilbur L. Lear, rector of St. Bartholomew's Episcopal Church, has returned from a six-week holiday tour in England, France and Holland.

Fr. Lear reported that he left Granite City on June 30 and flew directly to London, where he spent three days. While there he visited Windsor Castle, Hampton Court, Westminster Abbey, St. Paul's Cathedral, and several of the famous French churches of London.

On July 4, Fr. Lear joined an organized tour which took him to Paris, Auxerre, Vesly, Autun, Taise, Chury, Paray-Monfai, Bourges, through the Loire Valley, and many of the famous French chateaux, to Tours, Le Mans, Chartres, Mont St. Michel, Coutance, Hamby, and Cherbourg.

From Cherbourg, the group crossed the English Channel, landing in Southampton. From Southampton Fr. Lear went to Bournemouth, a popular seaside resort for two days. While there he visited Winchester and Salisbury cathedrals and the famous Stonehenge.

Leaving Bournemouth, the group went to Sherborne Abbey, and Bristol and from Bristol to Gloucester, Gloucester, where the cathedral possesses the largest stained glass window in the world.

From Gloucester the tour went to Birmingham, with stops at Cirencester, and Worcester. During the stay at Birmingham, Fr. Lear visited the Cotswold district of England and Stratford-on-Avon, the city made famous as William Shakespeare's home.

Visits were also made to the Cotswold where Fr. Lear saw the famous and controversial new Cathedral of St. Michael, which replaced the church bombed by the Germans in World War II.

From Coventry the group traveled across England, visiting Peterborough and Norwich, and south through Cambridge to London. On July 17, Fr. Lear joined a large group of clergy and laity in attending the 12 days Cantess Conference an ecumenical conference sponsored annually by the Church of England, the British Council of Churches, and Canterbury Cathedral, in Canterbury.

The conference met this year at Christ Church College which stands in the shadow of Canterbury Cathedral, where the group attended a number of services as well as several musical concerts. During the time at Canterbury, Fr. Lear visited Dover and the ancient Dover Castle, and one day joined a group who returned to London, visiting Greenwich and taking a boat trip on the Thames from Greenwich to Charing Cross in London. Among the speakers at the Cantess Conference were men such as Dr. Ulrich Simon, the noted biblical scholar, Canon Martin Thornton of Truro, Fr. John Coventry, S.J., of Heythrop College, and Dr. John Huxtable of the United Reformed Church in England.

The group attending the conference numbered about 250 and included men and women from the United States, Canada, Great Britain, Sweden, Holland, Israel, Borneo, and Australia and New Zealand. Faiths represented included Anglicans, Roman Catholics, Lutherans, Old Catholics, Methodists, Presbyterians, Baptists, United Church of Canada and the Church of North India.

Following the conference, Fr. Lear journeyed to York, in northern England, for several days and then crossed the North Sea to Rotterdam and then to Gelderland in Central Holland where he spent 12 days visiting friends who live in Hoog-Putten about 45 miles east of Amsterdam.

Fr. Lear said that he is now in the process of preparing a slide-show of his trip and will talk with groups who might like to hear and see more of his travels.

Secretaries plan programs

Monthly meetings for the 1975-76 school year were planned by members of the board of directors of the Granite City High School Future Secretaries Association at a meeting last week at the home of FSA committee chairman, Mrs. Charles Vunovic.

Mrs. Judi Sparks, FSA advisor from North High school, was in attendance at the meeting, and NSA member, Mrs. Joyce Savich, attended. Attending the planning meeting were President Nancy Bean, Vice-President Bonnie Ross; Corresponding Secretary Rhonda Brawley; Recording Secretary Cathy Jones; and board member at large, Jean Greer.

Mrs. Sparks announced that the names of those eligible for membership in FSA, which is determined by grades, are already known. Invitations to these individuals will be given out prior to Sept. 15.

Mrs. Sparks said that FSA membership who has not received an invitation by that date should contact one of the FSA advisors, Mrs. Sparks at North or Mrs. Pat Conrad at South, who will be substituting this year for Mrs. Lucille Delany, who currently is on a leave of absence.

Initiation is scheduled for Sunday afternoon, Oct. 19, at which time the new officers will be installed, and junior members will be initiated. Parents and members of the Tri-Cities Chapter, NSA, also will be invited to attend.

Educational programs planned this year include a skit by chapter members, a spelling bee, "Fashions and the Working Girl," an FSA Alumni Panel composed of ex-members of the local FSA chapter, a court reporter and a lawyer. Two of the highlights of the year will be a field trip to Ralston Purina and Senior Day in the office in April. The year will conclude with a banquet at Charlie's, and election of officers.

Gardenaires hear speaker

Scott Wallace of Edwardsville was guest speaker at a 9:30 a.m. meeting of the Gardenaires Garden Club last week at the home of Mrs. C. E. Eads, 2621 State St.

He gave a report on the conservation workshop he attended at Northern Illinois University. Sessions were held at the Lorado Taft Field campus in Oregon, Ill., and instructors were provided by the university.

The speaker, who was granted a scholarship by the local club to attend the advanced conservation school, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Wallace. He will begin his senior year at Edwardsville High School.

Wallace explained the workshop was devoted to exposing students to their basic personal feelings for the environment, plus environmental problems and the approaches and skills used in solving the problem. Some of the courses provided an insight in the development in urban and global environmental management, he said.

He was accompanied to the meeting by his mother, Mrs. Wallace, who thanked the club for its interest in encouraging young people in the field of conservation.

After the program the president, Mrs. Jan Kohl, welcomed a new member, Mrs. R. K. Hintz. Members answered roll call with a discussion pertaining to sweet corn and peppers.

Mrs. A. A. Malotki, garden center chairman, said the August exhibit at the "mini-garden center, features fences and screens and may be viewed at the local library.

Betty Crocker coupons were collected by the hostess who is chairman of a project to forward the coupons to the Madison County Mental Health Services for use in the children's mental retardation program.

Members agreed to send a contribution to the district and state blue star memorial marker fund.

Those present were Mesdames Jerry Arbeiter, Mary Kristian, Thomas Layloff, William Long and a guest Rudolph Sprague.

The Sept. 10th meeting will be held at 10 a.m. in the home of Mrs. Long, Edwardsville.

St. Ann Society elects

St. Ann Altar Society of St. Mary's Catholic Church, Madison, elected 1975-76 officers at its Holy Name Day banquet at Charlie's Restaurant last week.

Those elected for the ensuing year are Mrs. Helen Baron, president; Ella Crnkovich, vice-president; Barbara Planitz, secretary; Josephine Knevezich, treasurer, and Frances Baker, chaplain.

Priests for the evening were awarded to Denise Sydek, Ella Crnkovich, Mary Pogorelec, Eva Barry and Sister Barbara McMullen, a guest.

Other guests present included Father Ralph Scherrer, Father Conrad Motola, Sister Bernadette, Sister Barbara, Sister Maureen, Adele Wasylak.

attending were Ann Brennan, Mickey Krusec, Alda Yurko, Gladys Markovich, Mary Holigowski, Elizabeth Such, Ann Siedla, Helen Romanic, Mary Melchic, Josephine Yurko, Cecelia Spinks, Elsie Kmetz, Vada Krajnovich, Frances Zabotz, Lee Krpan, Mary Ann Bunk, Violet Dobrowski.

Vera Sikora, Ann Loftus, Rose Schmitt, Ann Kwiatkowski, Catherine Orris, Helen Papa, Helen Huckla, Olga Varley, Julia Long, Julia Doan, Frances Trotts, Ida Dant, Veronica Kuly and Mildred Shiffer.

Embajadora to be named at dance

The identity of the young girl who will be given the title of "Embajadora 1975" will be announced at the Embajadora dance starting at 8 p.m. Friday at the Azteca Room at Brasserie's Restaurant, 3400 S. Jefferson at Cherokee Streets, St. Louis.

Sponsoring the annual event is the Mexican-American Cultural Commission of the metropolitan St. Louis area.

According to officers of the organization, tickets may still be purchased for $2.50 in advance or at the door for $3.

Music will be furnished by Los Hermanos Santacruz.

Auxiliary aids children

Amvets Auxiliary Post 51 gave a cash contribution to the St. John's Children Home in Belleville and also gave 25 Shiner circus tickets to the children, according to a report given by Mrs. Joan Hanson at last week's meeting of the group.

Opening prayer was led by Chaplain Trudy McGowan, followed by the pledge of allegiance by Karen Deen, Americanism chairman.

President Jackie Petras presided at the session and announced highlights of an executive session she attended in Springfield, and of a visit to the Illinois State Fair for Veterans Day there.

Mrs. Petras won the white elephant prize and a special award was given to Barbara Smith.

Hostesses Charleen Sanders and Mrs. McGowan served a buffet luncheon to the members and two guests, Mrs. Peggy Barr and Mrs. Shirley Gann.

Areawide Crusade Aug. 30-31

Two musical performances will highlight the Areawide Crusade at the Madison County Baptist Associational Grounds located on Engineer Road, Mitchell.

Saturday, Aug. 30 at 7:30 p.m., music will be by the entire Stalenecker family, which consists of central Bette, her evangelist husband Ed, sons Chip and Rick, Rick's wife Lynne, and instrumentalists Joe and Shirley Nichols.

The younger Staleneckers will present "Jesus, the Rock" festival, Friday, Aug. 29, for the public. The music begins at 7:30 p.m.

Bette and Ed Stalenecker took to the road 16 years ago, and the entire family now lives on wheels.

For 50 weeks of the year the troupe conducts home-church revivals in Southern Baptist churches, and area-wide crusades.

Chip, Rick and Lynne perform the Jesus the Rock concert. It is electric bass, guitars and keyboard, contrasted by Lynne's flute.

But this "rock concert" stresses through music that Jesus is the "rock." And that being a Christian can be a joyful experience, they said.

"We think the young people will come," Rick said. Past attendance records for the "Jesus the Rock" concerts back him.

Area churches from Collinsville, Maryville, Edwardsville, Madison and Granite City are participating in this Bicentennial Crusade from Aug. 24 through Sept. 31. To reach the grounds, those planning on attending are instructed to take Highway 111 to Engineer Road, turn left (west) and follow road to the location of the event, which is south of interstate 270.

MAIDEN VOYAGE

On Aug. 17, 1887, Robert Fulton's steamboat, the Clermont, made its first run up the Hudson River, a distance of about 150 miles, in 32 hours.

Patronal Feast observance set

St. Bartholomew's Episcopal Church, 22nd Street and Grand Avenue will observe its patronal feast on Sunday with a choral celebration of the Holy Eucharist with sermon at 10:30 a.m. Father Wilbur Lear, rector of the parish will be the celebrant and preacher.

At 6 p.m., St. Bartholomew's will host a meeting of the laity and clergy of the Central Deanery of the Diocese of Springfield in the Undercroft of the church.

The Very Rev. Regier White of Alton will preside at this meeting which will include clergy and delegates from Alton, Wood River, Edwardsville, Glen Carbon, Collinsville, Fairview Heights, Belleville, and Granite City.

Garden insects club topic

Mrs. William Bradley, 81 Morris Court, entertained members of the Cloverview Garden Club in her home last week. A dessert luncheon was served to eight members and one guest, Mrs. Maxwell Furber.

Mrs. Richard Branding, president, called the meeting to order and presented year-books for the 1975-76 season. Minutes of the May meeting and the workshop held in June was read by the secretary, Mrs. Charles Gandels.

Mrs. Fred Orr gave the program "The Spoilers," a study of insects, insecticides, sprays and several reasons for success and failures of a garden, which stressed a clean garden is a healthy garden.

Mrs. Robert McCauley gave a study-lesson on "Garden Shortcuts" with the germination requirements, mulch and growth for carrots.

Specimens from the garden included an exhibit of roots from the garden of Mrs. Gandels and plants were brought for members by Mrs. John Lentz. A donation to the Blue Star Memorial Fund was made and members signed for the Red Cross Disaster Program for volunteer service.

Mrs. Kenneth Brokaw will entertain the club in September.

Miss Laux attends

Denver conference

Miss Evelyn Laux, head librarian at Granite City High School North, attended a work conference on legal rights and the school media specialist held earlier this month at the University of Denver.

Thirty-four participants from all over the nation took part in the conference which was given for two graduate credits.

Topics covered were censorship, copyright, discipline and control, underground newspapers, due process, tort liability, equal educational opportunity and law librarianship.

Three professors from the law school of the University of Denver were featured speakers on constitutional law, legal bibliography, and intellectual property.

1,500 will get degrees Aug. 28

Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville will hold its summer commencement exercises Aug. 28 at 7 p.m. at the Outdoor Performing Arts Facility, also known as the Mississippi River Festival site on the campus.

Dr. Edwin Dale, associate dean of the SIUE School of Dental Medicine, will be the speaker.

More than 1,500 candidates will be awarded degrees by SIUE President John S. Rendleman. The names of all graduates in attendance will be read.

Candidates are to arrive at the commencement site no later than 6 p.m., according to Emil

James, chairman of the commencement committee. Upon arrival, they are to report to their academic school immediately to allow time for organizing the procession, he said.

In the event of rain, exercises would be decentralized according to schools and moved inside. The ceremonies would then begin at 7:30 p.m. instead of 7 p.m.

Following the commencement, a reception honoring the graduates will be held at the outdoor site. The graduates, members of their families and their friends are invited to attend.

The Graduate School has scheduled exercises in Meridian Ballroom of the University Center if it rains.

Robert L. Nobus Marine enlistee

Robert L. Nobus, a son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Nobus, 1816 Lynn Ave., left last week to begin basic training with the U. S. Marine Corps at Parris Island, S. C.

A 1973 graduate of Granite City High School, Nobus enlisted for a four-year duty tour at the local recruiting office, 1210 Niedringhaus Ave. His training courses will include military customs, courtesy, drilling and as a rifle man. BING, BUCK AND BILL review plans for Ains Temple Shriners' night at a St. Louis baseball Cardinals game Saturday, Aug. 23. Discussing last year's game, when the Cardinals helped the Shriners' Crippled Children's Hospital with proceeds from a game, Jack Buck said it was a pleasure to tell the listening audience about the hospital and "the way it helps kids." The broadcaster agreed to help promote the benefit game again this year. General Manager Bing Devine, right, is hopeful that his high-flying Cardinals will have a full house so that the amount of money for the hospital will be larger than last year. Ains Potestate William R. Popkes, center, is stressing that only those tickets sold by Shriners come toward the hospital's funds.

DeMolays attend state meet

Six DeMolays from James Stuart Chapter, Order of DeMolay, led by master counselor Anthony Tsigaloroff, attended the 47th annual DeMolay conclave on the campus of Western Illinois University in Macomb, Ill., during the weekend.

The theme of the conclave was "Illinois DeMolay Salutes America" to help launch the Nation's Bicentennial year. The conclave was preceded by a Sports Jamboree and ritual competition. The delegates who attended business sessions and training seminars were housed in Higgins Hall, a 20-story University housing complex. At the business sessions conducted by State Master Counselor Tom Ciricione of Swordsman's Chapter, Joliet, Dan T. Rhodes of Prospect Chapter, Arlington Heights, was elected state master counselor for the 75-76 DeMolay year. Rhodes and other elected and appointed state officers were installed at the state master counselor's breakfast on Sunday morning. The year's activities for the state organization were set forth in these sessions. The first full event will be a district flag football tourney by Sept. 14 in which the local chapter will compete. This will be followed by a bi-district, area and state flag football tourney in October and November. Seminar leaders were Robert W. Copper, Garland, Texas, ritual governor for the jurisdiction of Texas; Myles Belz, Muscatine, Iowa, executive officer for the jurisdiction of Iowa; Tom W. Moberly, Kansas City, Mo., director of field relations and activities for the International Order of DeMolay; Keith K. Klein, Portage, Ind., news correspondent for NBC in Chicago; and Tom C. Duerhing, Waukesha, Wis., executive director of Wisconsin DeMolay. The highlight of the state master counselor's banquet in the Grand Ballroom of the University Union with over 700 in attendance, in addition to presentation of awards, was the crowning of the 1975-76 State DeMolay Sweetheart, Janet Pugh of Crusader's Chapter, LaGrange, by the 1974-1975 Illinois DeMolay Sweetheart, Miss Karen Lugbill of Stephen A. Douglas Chapter, Springfield. The banquet was followed by a rock dance. In attendance from the local DeMolay chapter in addition to Tsigaloroff were David Caviness, Barry Church, Kelly Smith, Dennis Worthen and Mike Worthen. They were accompanied by advisors Charles E. Hileman Jr. and Charles A. Meyer and were joined by Robert E. Holton, formerly of Granite City and now on the staff of the University in Macomb.

Crop insurance being offered

Applications for federal crop insurance are now being accepted for wheat to be seeded this fall and for corn and soybeans being planted next spring. The dollar protection has been increased to cover the higher cost required to produce these crops, a Federal Crop Insurance Corporation official reports. He added: "If you are engaged in farming and are not now using federal crop insurance protection, we suggest contacting the crop insurance office located at Room 206, U.S. Post Office and Federal Building, Breese, Ill. 62230 (phone: 1-326-4888) for information about how PCIC can become a part of your money management program and possibly prevent a financial loss that could force you off the farm."

More utilizing 'circuit breaker' tax relief law

The director of the state agency that administers "circuit breaker" tax relief programs for senior and disabled Illinois residents reports that 88,000 people—over twice as many as a year ago—have received property tax relief this year.

Speaking at an awards presentation for senior citizens during Golden Age Day at the Illinois State Fair, Revenue Director Robert H. Alphin said the 88,000 had shared through the first week in August a total of $14,900,000 in relief of 1974 tax year property taxes (1975 collection).

He said the average grant was $168, nearly $20 more than the average a year ago.

At mid-august 1974, the department had awarded a total of $5,900,000 in property tax relief to 39,800 senior and disabled citizens.

Alphin said 115,000 people, including elderly and handicapped property taxpayers, received a second grant averaging $80 under a state tax relief program signed into law in April. The additional grant program has provided more than $9 million in tax relief.

"We're encouraged for a lot of reasons," he said, "that more people are taking advantage of these programs," Alphin said.

"I don't think a person could find anything more disturbing than the thought that taxes could force people from the homes they put a life's work into."

"For the most part, these are the same people who for many years paid their taxes faithfully, and supported services for other Illinois citizens. Now they're faced with meeting rising costs on fixed incomes."

"It's sure that the circuit breaker program can mean the difference between keeping the family home and being forced out of it."

"We have reached more people this year, but that still for an additional tax relief grant if his income was less than $10,000 in 1974."

Alphin encouraged citizens to let their neighbors know of the benefits available to senior and disabled persons through the circuit breaker law.

The director said $35 million in tax relief grants have been awarded so far this year.

In addition to the $34 million granted for relief of 1974 taxes, $1 million has been awarded for relief of property taxes that qualified persons paid in the 1972 and 1973 tax years.

The circuit breaker law was established in 1973, and Alphin said people who were qualified but did not seek relief of 1972 and 1973 property taxes can still apply.

Forms are available on request by calling 800-252-8972, a toll-free number, anywhere in the state.

The Illinois circuit breaker law provides up to $500 a year in property tax relief and up to $100 a year in additional tax relief.

Any Illinois resident 65 or older—or disabled—is qualified for an additional tax relief grant if his income was less than $10,000 in 1974.

Alphin encouraged citizens to let their neighbors know of the benefits available to senior and disabled persons through the circuit breaker law.

Simon urges more willingness to compromise on key U. S. issues

(Press-Record)

Washington Bureau) The Illinois freshman and the Arizona veteran from opposite sides of the aisle couldn't agree more on the "dangerously uncertain" course of the 94th Congress.

"We are playing with dynamite," says Rep. Paul Simon, congressional newsmonger from Downstate Illinois.

Although he is a member of the big class of freshman Democrats, the former Illinois lieutenant governor—experience tells him "something is askew here."

"It is up to Republicans to stir up the public and impress upon them the disastrous course the Democrats are taking," says House Minority Leader John J. Rhodes of Arizona, an 11-term Republican veteran of the House.

During the August recess, both Simon, in a weekly column for his 24th District congressional newsletter, and Rhodes, in speeches to Texas Republicans, have faulted Congressional indecision on energy.

Rhodes serves President Gerald Ford well while Simon is more than fair to Mr. Ford.

"Congress must be faulted in the energy field," Simon says. "We pass bills which we know the President will veto, and which we have no chance of overriding. Why? The monkey is on his back, one of my Democratic colleagues told me. The reality is that the monkey is on the nation's back."

Simon is not so naive as to think neither Ford nor Congress will not play politics, and he expects both Democrats and Republicans to proclaim themselves "champions of the people" next year, a phrase he believes rings hollow right now.

"We, Congress, are making some practical compromises which were offered by the President on energy," Simon adds. "One of the ablest members of the House, Rep. Thomas Rees of California, said to me on the floor, 'We in Congress are on another ego trip, I'm afraid.' I fear the accuracy of that statement." In Rhodes' view, in his Texas speeches, also suggests that the majority exhibits egomania.

"The President gave the Democrats plenty of time—when they did not come up with a program, he moved."

"They have reacted with outrage and voted down his suggestions. But where is their program? Congress's misunderstanding of the petroleum challenges has been monumental."

Rhodes said Democrats, with a two-to-one majority in Congress, "will have a hard time trying to blame anyone else for their inaction and failure to solve problems of government."

Simon voiced concern to Illinoisans over this "unwillingness to compromise—and almost casual way in which we seem ready to take the nation's economy to the edge of the cliff for partisan advantage."

He hopes that the President and Congress will both listen "at the grassroots" during the August recess and that the mood next month "will be more conciliatory."

North High Band Parents committee chairmen named

Committee chairmen of the Band Parents Association of Granite City High School North were appointed by Harold Stoker, president, during the group's first meeting of the 1975-76 school year in the school library.

Mrs. Karen Gray was appointed chairman of the Special Events Committee, and Mrs. Lynn Kinney were named to chair the Ways and Means Committee, with John Miller and Joseph Rosales assisting.

Mrs. Violet Jorgensen was appointed chairman of the Bylaws Committee, Mrs. Erma Beside chairman of publicity and Mrs. Peggy Dillard, historians.

Approximately 200 persons attended the meeting and were reminded of the first football game of the season between North and South High Schools on Friday, Sept. 5, with North hosting the game.

The group approved the minutes of its previous meeting. All members were requested to attend the next meeting scheduled at 8 p.m. Friday, Sept. 5, in the library.

RELEASED ON BOND

Robert Garner, 32, of 3201 Kirkpatrick Homes, was charged with aggravated battery at 8:35 p.m. Monday after the mother of a 15-year-old Kirkpatrick Homes boy alleged that Garner had slapped the boy and threatened him with a knife. The mother signed a complaint against Garner. He was released after posting $100 bond Tuesday morning.

Bids called for port job

Sealed bids for construction of a 10-inch water main and for grading and filling a land area on the west side of Slough Road have been called by the Tri-City Regional Port Authority. Bids will be opened at the Tri-City Regional Port Authority, 2801 Rock Road, at noon on Sept. 3. Copies of plans and specifications, bid forms, bond forms and other contract documents may be obtained at the Port office or from Horner & Shiffrin, Inc., St. Louis engineering firm. The work will involve installation of a water main and the filling and grading of a former open dump area in a project estimated to cost about $150,000. A federal grant of $120,000 has been authorized, with the remaining $30,000 to be provided as a local share by the port district.

Some delays during airport drive paving

Repaving and resurfacing of the upper level drive (enplaning roadway) at Lambert-St. Louis International Airport will begin Sept. 2 and is scheduled for completion by Thanksgiving. The reconstruction will be done in three phases on the four-lane drive, which accommodates curbside checking facilities, valet parking and bus stops.

"We are making every effort to keep passenger inconveniences to a minimum during the reconstruction period; the airport police staff assigned to the upper level drive will be doubled or tripled during this time to keep traffic flow normal on the roadway,"

Ron Moore, assistant airport director in charge of engineering and planning, reports.

"The repaving job has been phased so that one section of the drive will be closed at a time, beginning with two lanes on the northeast. When this section is finished, it will be reopened and we will begin work on the next phase," Moore said.

The repaving job originally was estimated to cost $480,000. The low bid received to complete the job was $360,000.

In the past few years, concrete on the drive has deteriorated and a leakage problem has developed. Several inches of the old concrete will be removed, the sealer layer below it will be replaced and the surface will be repaved with concrete.

In an effort to avoid peak-hour traffic on the roadway, the work will be scheduled from 7 a.m. to 3:30 p.m., five days a week.

Curbside baggage checking facilities will remain on the roadway during the reconstruction, but will be relocated on the drive during the three phases.

As an extra precaution, airline passengers and others who use the upper level drive at peak travel periods are to be urged to allow more time for any delays which may be encountered during the three-month reconstruction period.

Normally, heaviest traffic on the roadway is from 7 to 9 a.m. and from 4 to 7 p.m., especially on Fridays.

Locks, dam evaluation ready; accept comments

A formulation evaluation report for replacement of Locks and Dam No. 26 south of Alton has been made by the St. Louis district engineer of the Army Engineer Corps. The study was initiated in order to develop and evaluate a solution to the capacity and structural problems at Locks and Dam No. 26, a spokesman said. The locks and dam are situated at a key location on the inland waterways system. Both structural and non-structural solutions were evaluated.

The development and evaluation of the environmental and socio-economic impacts of each alternative were considered in selecting the recommended plan, it was explained.

The recommended plan provides for construction of a replacement structure approximately two miles downstream of the existing structure. It is being delayed by litigation by railroads and environmental groups.

The proposed new structure would consist of a dam and two parallel locks, each lock 110 feet wide by 1,200 feet long.

The report, concurred in by the division engineer, Lower Mississippi Valley Division, is being referred for review to the chief of engineers.

Interested parties may present written views on the report to the chief of engineers. Written communications are to be mailed to: Department of the Army, Office of the Chief of Engineers, ATTN: DAEN-CWR, Washington, D.C. 20314 by Sept. 15.

Break into school

Nothing was believed stolen during a break-in at Washington School on West 20th Street, which was discovered Monday.

Officials believe boys may have broken in to retrieve balls which had been thrown through windows to the audio-visual equipment room.

A screen in a west basement window was removed and the window forced open to gain entry. The hush to the audio-visual room door was pried open, but could not be freed.

A large hole then was knocked in the wall adjacent to the door to gain entry to the room.

2 Corinthians 5:17, "Therefore if any man be in Christ, he is a new creature: old things are passed away, and behold all things are become new."

This is one of the greatest scriptures in the Bible. If you have never read it before, it could be that it means nothing to you. Perhaps if I could change the wording slightly to read this way: "If Jesus Christ be in any man, he is a new creature — you may receive a clearer meaning. The presence of Christ in your heart, your everyday life, will make you a new creature!"

Old things will pass away, all things will become new! Gone forever the life with no meaning, no hope! With Christ in you and in line, you will share in your soul a share of eternity. The gift of God is eternal life.

God wants to share that gift with you today. "He so loved the world that He gave His only begotten Son that whosoever believeth on Him should not perish but have everlasting life." Since He is not a respecter of persons, and since He loves you in deed, why not make up your mind today to accept Him. Go ahead, try it now.

One prayer, with sincerity, to God can cause you to become a new creature. Try it today!

Alimony theory based on view of man as provider, woman as overseer of household

(Illinois State Bar Association)

As a practical matter in Illinois divorce proceedings, the determination of payment of alimony, if any, and resolution of other aspects relating to a property settlement during the greatest long-range impact with the parties to the divorce.

Proving the grounds for divorce and establishing one's right to custody of minor or otherwise dependent children are of primary concern to the court. Thereafter, an equitable distribution or division of marital assets is considered.

Often in divorce cases there is only one wage-earner, usually the husband.

In spite of total financial contribution to the family needs by that party, accumulated assets such as savings, real estate and related items — and that party's week-to-week earnings — are considered the property of both parties.

The rationale is that "housewives," even though not gainfully employed, contribute to the family unit in a way to make it possible for the wage earner to devote his energies to earning the income needed to maintain a family.

Once a legal ground for divorce is established and child custody is determined, courts prefer that the parties resolve other property matters between them — and urge that they do so without court involvement.

Litigation over property division usually results in antagonism and bitterness. And although a court may adjust certain provisions of any agreement arrived at by the parties, good-faith agreements are usually accepted by the court.

Questions considered in settling property rights are:

1. The current earnings of both parties.

2. The financial need of the dependent party to maintain his or herself in the general style to which they have become accustomed during their married life.

3. The needs of the minor children, including education and medical requirements.

4. The needs of the primary provider to maintain his or herself.

The court strives to reach an equity in property divisions, particularly as to periodic support payments, so as not to destroy the primary provider's incentive to continue to be gainfully employed.

As long as there are minor children involved in a divorce, the court will attempt to minimize a possible disruption upon their lives.

This means that if there is a marital home, title to which may be jointly held by the parties to the divorce, it is not unusual for the party receiving custody of those children to retain use of the marital home until such time as that party remarries or the children reach their majority.

Once provision for the care and maintenance of the minor children is provided, a division of the balance of any property — or of accumulated assets or of currently earned wages or income in the form of alimony — is considered.

Alimony, as regards a divorce proceeding, refers to support of the wife by her divorced husband.

While alimony could possibly be paid by the wife to the husband in instances where the wife is financially capable and the husband is not, the theory behind alimony is based on the "historical concept" that the man is the wage earner.

This concept includes the assumption that the woman, often a housewife without any means of income, is financially dependent upon him for support.

Alimony is the name given to installment payments to the wife for her support after divorce.

"Lump sum" amounts are sometimes paid in lieu of alimony.

For instance, in a situation where the parties jointly own a home as their only asset and the wife is entitled to alimony, an alternative to monthly alimony payments might be that the husband convey to the wife his share or interest in the home.

The wife would then not be entitled to further alimony. This is known as "alimony-in-gross."

Once a woman remarries, the ex-husband is relieved of his obligation to pay alimony. Remarriage has no effect on the payment of child support.

The fact that a wife may have some income from employment does not mean she foregoes any right to receive alimony.

Again, the relative earning capabilities in relation to the needs of the parties determines the amount to be paid.

The amounts paid for child support and alimony may from time-to-time be reviewed by the divorce court.

In the years following a divorce, if there is a "substantial change in circumstances" as to the finances or needs of either party to a divorce, a "post-decree" hearing by the court may result in an alteration of the support or alimony amounts.

Usual and ordinary cost-of-living increases or inflation do not result in increased payments.

Ainad Compacts mark 10th year

The Ainad Compacts, an award winning motorcycle unit of Ainad Temple, celebrated its 10th anniversary Sunday at a party held at the Operating Engineers Hall in Mitchell.

The Compacts' wives provided the food and refreshments. Music was furnished by Jerry Adams, Howard Bolton, and his son, Finn.

Other Compacts in attendance were Wendie Gritz, John Helton, Kelly Hogan, Virgil Dorway, Walter Blankenship, Lloyd Lewis, Al Woodward, Clarence Hoffman.

Vernon Cluts, Al Warren, and Harold Sunderhand. The Compacts, which became a unit in August 1965, have participated in more than 300 parades and events and provided more than $5,000 in bonds for the Shrine Hospital since their beginning.

Robbery arrests at River Festival site

Two East St. Louis men were charged with armed robbery following their arrests during the weekend near the Outdoor Performing Arts Facility on the campus of Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville.

Held in the Madison County Jail pending court appearances were Anthony J. Harris, 21, and Charles E. Johnson, 22. They were accused of robbing Stephen Thorn, 20, Belleville, Harris and Johnson were arrested in a parking lot by Officer Geraldine Bigansky of the SIUE Security Office shortly after Thorn reported he had been robbed of $41 at gunpoint. SIUE officers alleged they recovered the money and a 9-mm pistol from the pair.

In other action, SIUE officers charged Timothy J. Byington of Florissant, Mo., with aggravated battery in connection with a complaint filed by a woman attending the Mississippi River Festival. He was taken to the Madison County Jail pending a court appearance.

Debbie Steger of Washington, Mo., said her purse was stolen during an MRF concert. She said it contained a $58 check from Six Flags, glasses, and personal items.

Six juveniles from Spanish Lake and Florissant, Mo., and Granite City also were arrested at the MRF on charges of disorderly conduct. They were taken to the Madison County Juvenile Detention Center.

James Briggs of O'Fallon, Mo., reported to the SIUE Security Office that his 1968 Chevrolet station wagon was stolen from a parking lot at the MRF between 10 and 11 p.m. Aug. 15.

The Security Office is continuing an investigation of several theft complaints received during the week following an MRF concert Aug. 10.

Stereo, cassette tape or radio equipment was reported missing from vehicles owned by Jeffrey L. Hansel of Edwardsville, Gary McClaskey of St. Louis, John D. Napier of Cahokia, Richard Van Horne of Spanish Lake and Gary Garvin of St. Louis. An audio box converter taken along with a citizens band radio from the Garvin car was recovered at the MRF site.

Also being investigated is a report of a Kawasaki 100-cc. motorcycle being stolen from the parking lot at Tower Lake Apartments. The owner of the motorcycle is Karen Kearns, who resides at the apartments.

SIUE officers alleged Monday that radio and cassette tape equipment items found in a car belonging to David W. Martin, 17, Edwardsville Rural Route Six, had been identified as belonging to Brian Dealy of Cahokia. Martin was charged with theft in a complaint filed Aug. 11.

The Security Office reported a warrant has been issued for the arrest of a fifth person involved in connection with break-ins of two motor vehicles Aug. 6 at the Outdoor Performing Arts Facility. Four persons, including two juveniles, had been taken into custody at the scene.

Free blood pressure tests

In 1975, high blood pressure will lead to strokes, heart attacks and kidney disease and ultimately will help kill approximately 250,000 Americans. Tragically, more than one-half of the 23 million Americans who today have high blood pressure are unaware of it.

To help detect this silent killer in the Quad-City area, the Walgreen Drug Store, 3801 Nameoki Road, in Crossroads Plaza, will give free blood pressure tests on Friday, from 5-9 p.m. and on Saturday, from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m.

Tests for high blood pressure, or hypertension as this condition is often called, will be performed as a public service by students from the School of Nursing, Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville campus.

Because often no symptoms are present and even apparently easy-going relaxed people are susceptible, this type of periodic blood pressure testing is urged as form of detection and protection. The test is simple, quick and painless.

Burglars flee

A .38 caliber snub-nosed pistol, a movie camera and projector and an assortment of jewelry were stolen during a burglary at the home of Richard Brown, 2851 Grand Ave., which was reported early this week.

Entry was gained through a rear door which had been left unlocked for a short period of time.

A young man and young woman were seen leaving the yard and carrying something when the Brown family returned home.

Career promotions at Army Aviation Systems

"Upward mobility" is more than a phrase or a future goal at AVSCOM (U.S. Army Aviation Systems Command); it has arrived, a spokesman reports.

For the first time here, clerical positions have been established, identified and advertised as "upward mobility program positions." Four positions have been identified as mobility jobs thus far, and about a dozen more will be so classified in the near future.

"Upward mobility" is designed to provide a planned program of training, promotion and career progression for qualified individuals at the lower end of the federal job classification range. Similar career planning has long been available to persons in the mid-level and professional categories.

Personnel officials stress that the program is available only to current Department of Army employees and non-appropriated fund (NAF) employees with reinstatement eligibility.

When a person is hired for an upward mobility position, he or she is required to sign a training agreement based on his or her individual experience and talents. Persons selected will be trained for the "optimum" grade level for which the job is targeted.

A mobility position may be rated, for example, at a GS-7 level, but hiring may be done at the GS-4 level or any level between; the person will be trained to assume the GS-7 responsibilities at the end of the training period.

Promotions are made non-competitively, based on satisfactory completion of training requirements, basic qualifications and a recommendation by the immediate supervisor.

A unique feature of the program is that applicants who wish to join, but already hold job ratings higher than the upward mobility entry level, will if otherwise qualified be entitled to salary retention.

The spokesman concluded that "upward mobility can be a bridge to greater earning power, a source of job satisfaction, and a supplier of trained personnel. AVSCOM intends to see that it functions well."

Stricter mine law on safety

Gov. Dan Walker today signed legislation this week to protect miners' safety and expand the authority of the State Mining Board to enforce the new measures.

He also dedicated the state's first black lung treatment clinic at ceremonies before the miner's statue — commemorating Illinois miners who died in mine accidents — on the lawn of the state capitol with Arnold Miller, president of the United Mine Workers of America.

Gov. Walker said, "I am signing the first major improvement in laws to protect the lives of miners in 20 years. The previous measure was passed after 230 miners died in Centralia and West Frankfort mine disasters."

"There has been no recurrence of such disasters. But 12 miners were killed in Illinois mines last year and four have died so far this year. We cannot tolerate this continuing tragedy."

"We must take every step we can to protect miners. The coal industry is a growing industry in Illinois. Consequently, we must increase our vigilance."

"Illinois surface mine safety standards will be as tight as the federal regulations. Miners cannot be forced to work when they feel their lives are endangered."

"This legislation provides for other safety improvements and gives the State Mining Board and the Department of Mines and Minerals new powers to see that they are enforced. Violators will be prosecuted."

"The nation has rediscovered Illinois coal as a great resource, but greater resources are the Illinois coal miners. We must protect their health and safety."

The bill also requires that mine supervisors hold a certificate of competency as mine examiners, and that underground mine superintendents hold a certificate of competency.

Surface mine supervisors must have two years of mine experience and have obtained a certificate of competency after being tested.

A miner must obtain a first-class certificate at the end of the apprenticeship period. First-class papers must also be held by "timbermen" who inspect roof supports.

State mine inspectors will have authority to enforce federally-titled roof control programs.

Walker announced the opening of the state's first clinic for comprehensive care of coal miners with black lung and other chronic respiratory disorders.

The clinic is located at Herrin Hospital and will serve 500 miners suffering from mine-related respiratory disorders.

The facility is funded by a $300,000 federal grant awarded to Comprehensive Health Planning of Southern Illinois. It opened July 15 and is staffed by a medical director and five full-time assistants.

The program is designed to develop ambulatory care systems for active and inactive coal miners. The clinic offers diagnostic services and outpatient care.

BROADWAY-MAIN STREET RELOCATION PROJECT is continuing. Author Kittenhoffen, resident engineer for the city of Venice, reports the contractor, Kern Construction Co., has used 129 working days of the 210 provided for in the contract. About 40 per cent of the work is fully complete, and the estimated completion date is Dec. 15. Workmen above, pouring concrete on the south side of Broadway, are providing Main street with an entrance onto Federal Aid Route 151 bridge ramps north of the buildings in the picture.

CAMERA, FILM TAKEN

A $175 camera and three packages of film worth a total of $18 were stolen from the auto of Phyllis Finazzo, 302 Marshall Ave., it was reported at noon Monday. The car was in her driveway and was locked before the theft, she said.

We have been asked . . .

Why the "Conglomerate," a beautiful shop, selling only "brand new" things opened for business in the Flea Market. Answer, low overhead, means low prices for smart shoppers. This week, as associate members (Indian heritage (Navajo, Zuni, Pueblo). Men, heavenly blue stone, with pure sterling silver. Romantic, sensuous pieces of America's Indian heritage (Navajo, Zuni, Pueblo). Men, women rings, bracelets, necklaces, fetich, heisho. You will really be surprised when you see the Conglomerate. Master charge or layaway plan. Bring this ad and save $1.00 more on price.

Help Wanted 22

FOR REGISTERED NURSES!
DID YOU KNOW?

That your hospital has a whole new approach to nursing?

We have restructured our entire nursing service to free our Staff Nurses from paperwork, supervision and administration functions. We call our program (Pain-Centered-Care) and it is geared for the future to primary nursing. In order for our program to be successful, we must expand our staff with nurses interested in bedside nursing.

We believe that ST. ELIZABETH HOSPITAL has the responsibility to provide our community with the finest health care possible, and that the nurses who live in our community will happily share that responsibility with us.

We offer excellent salaries, benefits and a tour of our facilities to see what we can do for you?

Remembrance is a golden chain Death tries to break but all in vain.
To have, to love, and then to part
Is the greatest sorrow of one's heart.
The years may wipe out many things
But they wipe out never—
The memory of those happy days
When we were all together.

Flees from assailant

Phillip Richardson, 2200 Adams St., Apt. 4, told police at 2:30 p.m. Monday that a man with whom he had had an earlier disagreement came to his apartment armed with a knife and tried to break the apartment door down.

Richardson said he fled through a window and ran to the police station. He said the man kept ordering him to come out of the apartment and used a steel rod to knock a hole in the upper section of the apartment door.

Police investigated and found a paring knife sticking in the wall in the hallway outside of Richardson's door.

Touring units to stress training for disabled veterans of Vietnam

Thirty-six Illinois communities will be visited Sept. 15-Oct. 10 by the Disabled American Veterans (DAV) fleet of mobile field service units.

Eighteen traveling DAV service offices, housed in specially-equipped 26-foot motor vans, are on a year-long nationwide tour of the United States.

The schedule includes Alton (Federal Courthouse) Oct. 3, East St. Louis (site to be chosen) Oct. 6 and Belleville (Park Plaza) Oct. 7-8.

Purpose of the tour is to carry the free services provided by the DAV to wartime disabled veterans and their dependents who live some distance away from Veterans' Administration regional offices.

DAV national service officers, most of whom are Vietnam era disabled veterans, will be on board the field service units to assist wartime disabled veterans and their families in their claims for federal and state benefits to which they are entitled by law.

The DAV employs more than 250 full-time national service officers, with offices at VA regional headquarters throughout the country.

However, DAV officials point out that the location of these regional offices often makes it difficult for many disabled veterans, as well as their widows and dependents, to make personal contact with a DAV national service officer.

"We know that many of these people need assistance in matters relating to disability compensation, insurance, education, hospitalization, employment and other benefits provided by the U.S. government," explains DAV National Commander Walter T. Greany.

"Our new field service unit will take the program right to their doors."

DAV officials stress that disabled veterans of all wars, as well as their dependents, are being urged to visit the field service units to discuss any problems they may have.

But particular emphasis is being placed on disabled veterans of the Vietnam war, because a large number are not taking advantage of all of the benefits they have coming to them—especially in the areas of education and vocational rehabilitation.

Last year, the tours' first year, DAV officers visited all 48 continental states. They were contacted by more than 47,000 veterans and families seeking assistance, and they expect to see even more this year.

Cooperating with the national organization in bringing the units to Illinois are the Department of Illinois DAV and also DAV chapters throughout the state.

The field service units will be open for business from 10 a.m. until 6 p.m.

LONGTIME SERVICE. Francis J. Sampson, 4364 Highway 162, Granite City, receives a Department of the Army certificate of service from Brigadier General John E. Sterling and his wife, Charlotte, live in quarters at the Army Installation, Granite City.

Venice man held

William Robinson, 31, of 1202 Market St., Venice, was being held this week in the St. Clair County Jail in lieu of $4,000 bond after being arrested by East St. Louis police last week.

Robinson is charged with unlawfully entering a motor vehicle, unlawful use of a weapon, not having a firearm owner's identification card and illegal possession of firearms.

Police alleged he entered a vehicle, and that he had a .22-caliber revolver and a package of firearms when he was apprehended.

SWITCHMAN FILES SUIT
Tony Stajduhar has filed a suit in Madison County Circuit Court seeking $100,000 from the Terminal Railroad Association of St. Louis, alleging he was injured July 3 upon attempting to throw a railroad track switch while employed as a switchman. Negligence was charged.

Letters to pharmacists by governor

Gov. Dan Walker has sent letters to every registered pharmacist in Illinois saying that a boycott by some against public aid prescriptions is illegal.

Walker said state agencies are coordinating an emergency program to assist recipients and doctors who are refused prescription service by druggists.

He said nearly 200 pharmacists in Illinois are taking part in the boycott, demanding a higher mark-up on prescriptions than the reduced amount newly ordered by the state.

The governor has urged recipients and doctors who have problems getting prescriptions filled to contact their nearest public aid office, which he said will find a druggist to fill the prescription.

Walker said he has asked the Federal Trade Commission to examine an East St. Louis area problem in particular, because of the "serious problem" recipients there are facing. He earlier last week requested an FTC investigation into any refusals to fill prescriptions.

"Most pharmacists are living up to their obligations, but a large group of irresponsible druggists is using the sick and the needy poor as a club to bludgeon the state into paying," he asserted.

"Right now, the pharmacists and other medical providers get more money from public aid than the recipients themselves—$100 million more."

Walker said that the cost of medical care is going to be brought into line without a decrease in service to the needy. And we will not tolerate a boycott.

Walker said letters to pharmacists were sent on his instruction by the director of the Department of Registration and Education, Ronald E. Stackler.

Walker said the most severe problems are occurring in Downstate cities and rural areas where access to alternative druggists is most difficult.

He reported "worst hit" areas as:

—East St. Louis: 30 pharmacies taking part in a boycott, including one which received more than $400,000 from the state last year; the pharmacies are filling prescriptions.

—Champaign area: 20 refusing out of 69.

—Peoria area: 20 refusing out of 69.

—Danville area: 15 refusing out of 18.

—South DuPage County: eight out of 15 stores surveyed are declining to fill recipients' prescriptions.

—Streator: no prescription drugs available to aid recipients; nearest drug store that will fill prescriptions is 15 miles away, in Ottawa.

—Edgar County: all six public aid prescriptions are now refusing.

—Ford County: all four pharmacists who had handled public aid prescriptions are said to be refusing.

Recipients having difficulty getting prescriptions filled, or being told their "green cards" are not acceptable, are being urged to contact the public aid office for information about alternative suppliers, the public aid director, James L. Trainor, said.

He added, "The toll-free telephone hotline being used to report suspected cases of welfare abuse is being used for assistance in locating pharmacies which are cooperating with the department in accepting the green card in payment for medicine."

Granite City PRESS-RECORD

Budget erosion ends some SIUE administrative posts

A major realignment in the administrative operations of Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville is being put into immediate effect, it was announced Tuesday by President John S. Rendleman.

The key change involves the establishment of a new position, vice-president for administration, whose duties will absorb those of a number of presently functioning officers on a wide range of administrative levels, the president said.

Dr. Rendleman said the change is motivated by the "steady and continuing erosion of the base budget for SIUE since the previous operating structure was established in August and September of 1971."

He said in a letter to the SIUE Board of Trustees, detailing the changes on Aug. 15: "Each year, it has become more difficult to maintain essential support services for SIUE in the academic areas of university operations in light of the eroding budget."

Along with the base budget decline, Dr. Rendleman observes that "enrollment at SIUE appears to have stabilized and to be increasing again. Our academic programs are continuing to develop and diversify."

"Such growth in enrollment and programs is accompanied by demands for increased support services from the non-academic support areas, and to diversify and expand expertise in many academic areas, despite the reality of base budget reductions."

"The vitality of the university during the next decade will largely be determined by how well we succeed in organizing ourselves to achieve more and better non-academic services with smaller budgets."

Although the changes have been under study for the past several months, President Rendleman said that he has given the matter his concerted attention during recent weeks.

In line with administrative changes, he has also directed that Vice-President and Provost Andrew J. Kochman make a concurrent critical analysis of university operations in the academic area "designed to determine what administrative adjustments, if any, could be made to improve administrative efficiencies and capacities in that component of the university."

The most immediate substantive change involves the appointment of the new vice-president for administration, which Dr. Rendleman will make upon receipt of search committee recommendations. All units presently reporting to the vice-president for business affairs and the controller and budget director are to be realigned under this new officer.

Along with this realignment, the positions of vice-president for business affairs, assistant vice-presidents for business affairs and vice-president for student affairs will be dissolved.

The controller and budget director will be relocated under the vice-president for administration.

In describing the wide-ranging functions of the new position, Dr. Rendleman said, "The new vice-president for administration thus will consolidate into a single operating element almost all of the non-academic support functions of the university."

"Several units now under Student Affairs which are not realigned under the vice-president will be realigned either into academic affairs or into another new administrative area," a position Oliver, Patrick Reynolds, 2504 W. 23rd; Evelyn Cook, 22 Jones Park; 16 months old.

"Because of my background in business and fiscal operations," Pres. Rendleman related, "I am determined to proceed immediately with reorganizing steps in the non-academic support services area."

A search committee, consisting of Vice-President and Provost Andrew J. Kochman, Dean Vaughn J. Lindsay of the Graduate School and Professor W. Deane Wiley, dean of the School of Education, has been constituted to advertise under the university's affirmative action plan and begin a screening process for applicants.

Candidate qualifications for the position will include a master's degree in business, public administration, political science or a related area; or a bachelor's degree in a related area with demonstrated experience and abilities in public administration. In addition, a prerequisite will be a minimum of five years in university administration at least one level beneath vice-president, or equivalent.

A date of Sept. 15 has been established as the deadline for receipt of credentials in application for the position.

The search committee has been directed to send three recommendations to Dr. Rendleman no later than Oct. 5. After making the selection, he will ask the Board of Trustees for ratification at the regular October board meeting.

Dr. Rendleman has further directed that General Counsel and Executive Assistant to the President John Paul Davis coordinate a review of a number of remaining administrative units, principally under the Office of Student Affairs, but also including Foundation Administration and Alumni Services, which have not been assigned to the new vice-president for administration.

This review will be conducted by a committee consisting of Davis, the three senior faculty members serving on the selection committee for the vice-president for administration, and the student body president.

This review, along with that conducted by Vice-President Kochman in academic affairs, is to be completed with recommendations forwarded to Dr. Rendleman by Sept. 15, so that realignments in all areas can be implemented coincident with the appointment of the new vice-president for administration.

Promising a progress report to the Board of Trustees at an executive session of the September meeting of the SIUE board, Pres. Rendleman emphasized the urgency of the changes in these words:

"The severity of the base erosion in our present budget, particularly in the light of the state's six per cent reduction and our reallocation to preserve salary increases, makes a prompt administrative realignment necessary. "Effecting such changes once the regular academic year has begun would be most difficult. And waiting until Fall 1976 is fiscally imprudent. Thus, I am proceeding immediately."

SNOOPY AND ED. The big potato reminds Edward Henson, 2533 Grand Ave., of the popular cartoon dog character and animated television star. Henson has just returned here from a visit with his daughter, Mrs. Mildred Farrar, who grew the potato. She lives at Henderson, Ky., where a lot of large and unusually-shaped vegetables are said to grow.

Tax returns on aircraft by Sept. 2

Taxpayers who own aircraft must file a special federal tax return, Form 4638, by Sept. 2. The Form 4638 should include the $25 annual fee for each aircraft, plus the tax of 2 1/2 cents for each pound of maximum certified takeoff weight for turbine powered aircraft, and two cents for each pound of maximum certified takeoff weight for other aircraft, according to Ira S. Loeb, district director of the Internal Revenue Service. The tax year for the use tax begins July 1 and runs through June 30. If the first taxable use by an aircraft occurs after July 31, the tax based on weight is proportionately reduced.

These revenues are used for construction and improvement of public airports and air control facilities, Loeb said. Forms 4638 and Publication 582, Federal Use Tax on Civil Aircraft, providing additional information on the aircraft use tax, are available at any IRS office or by calling IRS toll-free at 800-255-2921.

Burglarize DAV hall

The Disabled American Veterans hall, 1417 Nineteenth St., was burglarized after the front door was kicked open, it was reported Monday. The coin box in the juke box was pried out and an undetermined amount of change was stolen. Broken the bar, numerous glasses were knocked to the floor and four bottles of liquor were stolen.

A filing cabinet padlock was broken in a rear office, but nothing was believed taken from the cabinet. Two bar stools also were damaged. An inventory was to be taken to determine if anything else was stolen. Police said shoe prints on the front door appeared to be about size eight.

Named delegate to convention

William Brookus of Edwardsville, formerly of Granite City, has been selected as one of 13 Illinois delegates to the 1975 Libertarian Party Presidential convention which will be held in New York City Aug. 25 to Sept. 1.

The delegates were named in a meeting of Libertarian Party representatives in Chicago. Brookus said organization of a party unit in Madison County is to be undertaken soon.

He said the party objectives include pledges to reduce the size, power and expense of government, eliminate paying into citizens' private affairs and to repeal all victimless crime laws.
